As the End Approaches

When Paul wrote his epistle to the church at Rome, he reminded them of the urgency of being prepared for whatever was in their future. The Romans knew the times that lay before them (13:11), and Paul told them how to prepare. Their approaching trial may be different from one each of us faces—the end of our lives—but Paul’s words seem so applicable to what each of us must do as we see the end approaching.

As the end approaches, we must awake out of our sleep (13:11). Paul said, “It is high time to awake out of sleep for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.” There is a grave danger of complacency overtaking us spiritually. We may be like the apostles in Gethsemane who failed to listen to the Lord’s admonition, “Watch and pray.” Yet, they slept! As the end comes closer to each of us, let us watch and be sober.

As the end approaches, we must lay aside six fleshly sins (13:14). Paul said, “Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness . . . let us walk properly . . . not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy.” Our God created us as eternal souls residing in fleshly bodies, but it is so easy to forget this and live fleshly lives. One of life’s greatest sorrows is to see those who were once steadfast in their devotion now allow the flesh to gain supremacy over their souls. Look at the six sins Paul lists and guard against them. Our salvation is nearer than when we first believed, but so is our condemnation if worldliness destroys our spiritually. Christianity is a life of continual growth which began at our spiritual birth and ends with our physical death. The end is coming!

As the end approaches, we must clothe ourselves in an armor of light (13:12). Paul said, “Let us put on the armor of light.” The words “put on” are set in contrast to that which we must “cast off.” The six sins he lists are called the “works of darkness,” and our guarantee of victory is found in the armor of light. Paul amplified these two verses later when he said, “Put on the Lord Jesus Christ.” Becoming like Christ begins when we put on Christ in baptism (Gal. 3:27), but it does not end there. We walk in the light as He is in the light (1 John 1:7), and we are transformed every day to be more like Him. As the end approaches, let us put on Christ.

As the end approaches, we cannot make any provision to compromise with sin (13:14). Paul said, “Make no provision for the flesh.” There is no room to compromise when it comes to truth. Truth is absolute, and it is always right to do right. That determination we had to stand for truth when we first believed must never leave us.

The end is approaching: watch, pray and be sober!

The end of our lives is approaching. Therefore let us watch, pray and be sober

A Key Verse That We Need to Know

Early in His ministry, Jesus made this bold declaration: “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven” (Matt. 7:21). Think about each element of this verse and the two verses that follow.

There is nothing more important or essential for us than to “enter the kingdom of heaven.” Jesus first tells us who will NOT enter the kingdom of heaven. It is not enough to say to Jesus, “Lord, Lord.” What did He mean by that? Look at the next verse (v. 22), as Jesus looks ahead to the day of judgment: “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’” Here are persons who, like Jesus discussed in verse 21, call to Him as Lord, AND they itemize for Jesus some things that they have done for Him in His name.

Think for a moment, how impressive the actions are that are mentioned in verse 22: prophesied, cast out demons, done many wonders. They are very impressive things to be able to do for the Lord in His name. And, notice how sincerely these people thought that what they were doing was right, acceptable, and even commendable by the Lord.

Was there something wrong with what they were doing? It all sounds good and looks good. Jesus’ stern rebuke and condemnation in verse 23 is compelling. To these individuals who just claimed to have done all of these great things for the Lord in His name, Jesus pronounces: “And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’” To a group of sincere believers and followers, who just declared their allegiance to Him and doing deeds in His name, Jesus announced: (1) “I never knew you”; (2) “Depart from Me”; (3) “You practice lawlessness!” Their activities for Him were lawless.

Jesus had warned in verse 21 that, “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven.” Then, He gave a clear illustration that He is dead-serious about this warning; He will not hesitate to condemn for all eternity even those who sincerely claim to follow Him.

Let’s go back up to verse 21. Jesus also makes it very clear who SHALL enter the kingdom of heaven—it is “he who does the will of My Father in heaven.” That is a VERY limited number of people (see verses 13-14). Jesus said that there are only a FEW who would do the will of the Father and enter the narrow gate of heaven. In Matthew 7, Jesus both limits and specifies the ones who will go to heaven. Are you in that number? Are you doing the will of the Father in heaven?

There is nothing more important for us than to “enter the kingdom of heaven.”

“I have made myself a slave to all, so that I may win more.”

Paul said this and Timothy understood the application. In 1 Corinthians 9, Paul is defending his right to be paid for his labor in the kingdom. In this context, he mentions an often misunderstood passage.

“For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I may win more. To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews; to those who are under the Law, as under the Law though not being myself under the Law, so that I might win those who are under the Law; to those who are without law, as without law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak; I have become all things to all men, so that I may by all means save some. I do all things for the sake of the gospel, so that I may become a fellow partaker of it” (1 Cor. 9:19-23).

Some have used the idea of “becoming all things to all men” with great liberty. Paul clearly mentions being “under the law of Christ.” He is not saying that he acted outside the boundaries of the gospel. He is referring to doing the things he could to make his presence and speech more acceptable to these different groups. He did not want to do anything that would hinder the message of the gospel.

Timothy understood this because of what happened in Acts 16:1-3. Here they were introduced to Timothy, and Paul wanted him to come with them on their journey. They know his father is a Greek, so they have Timothy circumcised before they leave. Paul said in 1 Corinthians 7:19, “Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is the keeping of the commandments of God.” Poor Timothy! What is happening in Act 16? He is becoming all things to all men. He would not have been able to enter into the Jewish synagogues or teach Jews if he was not circumcised. To the Greeks, this was a strange mutilation of the body and culturally frowned upon. He did it for the sake of the gospel. So, the ordeal that Timothy endured was a direct application to making yourself a slave to others.

We need to consider our actions in evangelism and personal work in this light. If I could change a few things about how I present myself (WITHOUT COMPROMISING THE LAW OF CHRIST), then I might become more effective in gaining access into a particular group. It would be for the sake of the gospel. Paul is doing all he can to be able to have an opportunity to present the gospel. He has made himself a slave to others in their need for the gospel. What is misunderstood and overlooked is Paul’s devotion and humility to serve others.

Paul is doing all he can to be able to have an opportunity to present the gospel.

Never punt!

The story of Kevin Kelley (head football coach at Pulaski Academy in Little Rock, Arkansas) is so compelling. Over the last 11 seasons, Kelley has led his High School team to win 85% of its games, and they just won their fourth State Championship last Saturday. But what is so compelling is the unique strategy that has made him so successful—he never punts. After much statistical research into college football, he concluded that “going for it” on fourth down (and always doing onside kicks, too) gave his team a much better chance of winning.

There are some fascinating spiritual applications that can be made from this, but consider just one. When you punt on fourth down, you are admitting you “can’t make it.” When you punt, you are giving control to the opponent and an opportunity to score. Guess what? The devil loves for you to punt. When you punt (spiritually), it is admitting that you “can’t make it” and it gives him control. So, here’s your strategy for contending with the devil—NEVER PUNT! Always “go for it”! With God as your Coach and Jesus as your Quarterback, you’ll win every time! – DS

Take a walk!

Having a rough day? Most of us have experienced those days when everything seems to go wrong, to the point that we’re just waiting for the next thing in our day to fail. When that happens, might I suggest just taking a short walk? (Don’t worry, it won’t take long, and you can be right back at your desk of doom and despair.)

Walk outside and just breathe—when you do, remember that it was God who first breathed into man the breath of life (Gen. 2:7). Then, just listen and hear the songful chirping of the birds—when you do, remember that “not one of them is forgotten before God” (Luke 12:6), and neither are you. Take a moment and look up—when you do, imagine God saying that He will “open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you such blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it” (Mal 3:10). Ok, head back and go through the door—when you do, remember Jesus said, “I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved” (John 10:9).

Now that God has settled your day, let Him handle the rest of it, too! – DS

The Bible says...

1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved” (Acts 16:31).

2. Repent of your sinful ways

“Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out” (Acts 3:19).

3. Confess your faith in Jesus

“If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved” (Rom. 10:9).

4. Be immersed in water

“He who believes and is baptized will be saved” (Mark 16:16).

5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service

“Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life” (Rev. 2:10).
