Thank God, I Have Another Opportunity

The title of this article, “Thank God, I Have Another Opportunity,” comes from the heart of a new Christian I knew in New Zealand more than fifty years ago. Like almost every new Christian, she could not wait to tell her friends of the great treasure she had found in Christ. Like almost every joyful Christian, she told her friends over and over again. They seemingly were not interested in what she had to say.

Then, the church planned its gospel meeting, and she now had a new approach to use. Her words to me, “I am so thankful when we have a gospel meeting. It is the best week of the year because it gives me one more chance to invite others to learn about Jesus.” She never saw inviting others as an unpleasant “chore.” Instead, it was a time of joy to do all she could to teach others.

Somehow we have failed to understand the parable of the sower. This kingdom parable shows Christians as a sower who goes out into the world to spread the seed. That seed of the kingdom is the word of God (Luke 8:11). The responsibility of the sower is very simple. As he walks through the field, he simply spreads the seed. He does not go out to find only the good soil and then to spread the seed there. His task is to spread the seed everywhere.

He does not want scouts but sowers. No one can scout, everyone can sow!

The seed when it is sown almost always does NOT produce an abundant harvest. Meditate on this parable. Sowers do not always produce fruit! The seed seems to be “wasted” on three out of the four kinds of soils. Somehow, we have overlooked this and think that our task is to baptize everyone. We were sent to teach, not to baptize (1 Cor. 1:17). It may seem strange, but He will not ask us, “Did you ever lead someone to Christ?” Think about what question He will ask us!

The Lord does not need scouts, He needs sowers. We have misunderstood our work. He never sent us into the world to be His scouts just looking out for receptive people. How can we really know the hearts of others? We can only look at the outward appearance, and only the Lord can know the hearts of those around us. We must forever remove from our vocabulary the phrase, “I cannot find anyone to teach,” which means that we cannot find anyone who we think might respond favorably to our approach. It is far better to see all hearts as soils worthy of the gospel. We can never say, “I cannot find anyone in whose lives I can sow the seed.” They are all around us! Hearts like wayside soil, stony ground and thorny ground are all around us!

Our meeting begins next Sunday. Between now and then, let none of us become scouts! Let all of us become sowers, telling others of Him during “the best week of the year!”

Raising Kids Is Easier

There are some seriously tough jobs out there! (Mike Rowe, who hosted the television show, “Dirty Jobs,” would likely call that an understatement!) From coal mining to sewer cleaning to prison wardens, there are certain jobs in this world that just take a little more courage, stamina and prayer-power to accomplish.

Add to that list (and just go ahead and put it at the top of the “tough jobs” list) the job of parenting! It is certainly a job that takes courage, stamina and prayer-power! And, as all parents would agree, no two parenting jobs are alike. It is not true about children that “when you’ve seen one, you’ve seen them all”! Each child is unique, which makes each parenting job unique!

But, here’s some good news! I’m going to tell you how to make your parenting job easier! I did not say, “make it easy.” It’s not easy. But, here are some keys to making the challenge of raising kids easier.

Raising kids is easier when done in a Christian home. In a Christian home, there are God-given values, morals and rules that govern the lives and decisions of those in the home. When we live by God’s standards, then we don’t have to make up our own as we go along. When godliness, righteousness, prayer and Bible reading permeate the daily activities of the home, raising kids is so much easier!

Raising kids is easier when present for every church service. Sometimes it is might not be easy to get the kids ready (and yourself ready) to get to church three times a week, but when our weekly calendars have three permanent commitments and everything else in our lives must be scheduled around those fixtures, raising kids is so much easier!

Raising kids is easier when they’re regularly around other Christians. The influence of the world and our ungodly culture makes it difficult to raise spiritually-minded children, but when we have Christian friends and when we surround our kids with our Christian friends, raising kids is so much easier!

Raising kids is easier when the church family is at the heart of our lives. How can people in the world raise their kids without the church family? Who do they point to as worthy examples to follow? Who do they go to for sound advice? Who do they trust unequivocally with the lives of their children? I shudder at the potential answers to those questions! If the church family is truly an integral part of who we are and what we do, raising kids is so much easier!

Parenting is a challenging job! But, faithful Christians have found a way to make raising kids easier! If you’re missing one of these keys, you’re making it harder on yourself!

Faithful Christians have found a way to make raising kids easier!

A Tale of Two Gardens

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to Heaven, we were all going direct the other way." When you read the first line of Charles Dickens' novel, A Tale of Two Cities, and compare the garden of Eden to the garden of Gethsemane, there is an interesting spiritual correlation.

While humanity's time in the garden was a high point for us, our exit was truly the worst of times. In foolishness, we believed the serpent, and we were incredulous to the commands of God. In darkness and despair, we were cast from the garden. Without the love and grace of God we had nothing before us, and we were going "direct the other way." Romans 5:12 reads, "Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned." Thanks be to God that we were not left in that state. In our despair and hopelessness, God loved us. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him" (John 3:16-17).

Gethsemane was the beginning of the sacrifice of the Christ. It was the best of times for us. "For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ. So then as through one transgression there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men. For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the One the many will be made righteous" (Rom. 5:17-19).

As we think about the two gardens they represent two very different points in our relationship with God.

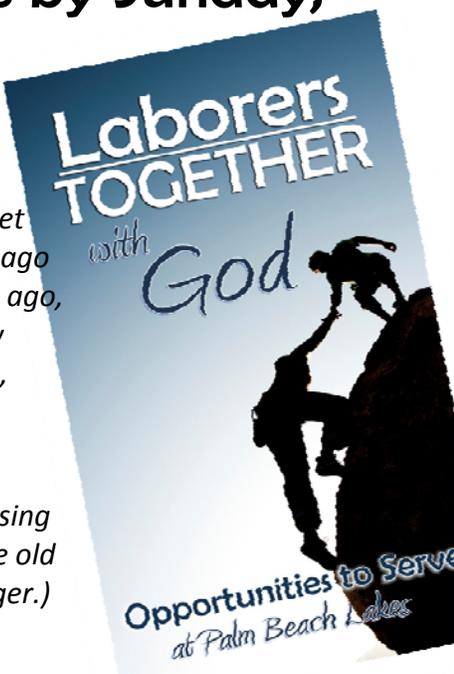

The Christ and all His sacrifice is the wisdom of God (1 Cor. 1:24); He is the basis for our belief (Acts 8:37) and the reason for our hope (1 Tim. 1:1). Those who are in Christ can confidently say, "Our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" (Phil. 3:20).

As we think about the two gardens, they represent two very different points in our relationship with God. The choices made in one marked our condemnation. The choices made in the other, our salvation.

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

- 1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God
"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).
- 2. Repent of your sinful ways
"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).
- 3. Confess your faith in Jesus
"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).
- 4. Be immersed in water
"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).
- 5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service
"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).

"All things were created through Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence...And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him" (Col. 1:16-18; 3:17).
