On the Verge of Ruin While in the Assembly

So many Christians feel rather good about their spiritual lives because they attend worship on a regular basis. They partake of the Lord's Supper almost every Sunday and even come at other times depending on what else is happening in their lives. What we often overlook is that one can worship regularly, yet at the same time can unknowingly be on the brink of leaving the Lord. Solomon said it this way, "I was on the verge of total ruin in the midst of the assembly and congregation" (Prov. 5:14).

How does this happen? What is happening in the lives, and more especially in the hearts, of those who are about to fall into the depths of sin and are unaware of it? Look at Proverbs chapter five to see the four attitudes which bring this about.

One is on the verge of ruin who hates instruction. These very words, "hate instruction," are words of wisdom from the renowned wise king. Yet, look at what was happening even before he built the temple. "Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David, except he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places" (1 Kings 3:3). He had been "raised in the church" to observe Jewish holy days. Yet, at the same time, he was worshiping idols! How could such happen? Proverbs 5:12 says he hated instruction.

One is on the verge of ruin who despises correction. Solomon sat in the assembly of the congregation of Israel, yet he was on the precipice of total destruction. It is not just young people who despise the correction of parents, for many Christians are resentful of preaching that seeks to correct their own lives. Oh the folly of those who hate preaching which calls on them to turn from sin! Oh the wisdom of those who rejoice to let God correct their lives!

Are you unknowingly on the verge of ruin in the assembly of the saints?

One is on the verge of ruin who does not obey his teachers. The third attribute of those who "go to church" but are unknowingly on the verge of destruction is a failure to obey teachers. If we sit in worship and the Word of God is proclaimed, we are sitting at the feet of our supreme Teacher. We must not only hear correction, we must become obedient.

One is on the verge of ruin who does not incline his ear to those who instruct him. When worshiping God, our ears must be inclined to hear. The word incline pictures one who "leans forward to be sure every word is heard." When assembled, we need to incline our ears when God speaks to us in the sermons preached.

Solomon shows four attitudes we must have when we assemble. Think about these things. Wisdom demands that we learn these vital truths. Check your heart. Are you unknowingly on the verge of destruction in the assembly of the saints?

Young Men and Young Women, It Is Time!

Modern culture has created a mold for today's young men and young women, and too many are allowing themselves to be poured right into it. Young people are depicted as self-absorbed, ungrateful, anti-social, materialistic individuals, who are given to a lifestyle of instant satisfaction, sexual abandonment and irresponsible behavior. (Notice, that is not my view, but how young people are often depicted by others in today's society.) In the home, they are portrayed as "running the show"—knowing more than the parents, having more sense than the parents and being more adept at raising themselves and ruling the house than their parents. We've been so conditioned to expect this of today's young people that to find one who steps out of that mold and behaves as a responsible human being is quite a sight!

Young men and young women, it is time to be what God intended for you to be! God's young people are like Shem, Ham and Japheth, who respected their father's instructions over the opinions of their friends! God's young people are like Isaac, who trusted his father to know and to do what was in his best interest! God's young people are like Joseph, who resisted and fled sexual opportunities that were offered to him! God's young people are like Reuben, who stood up to his brothers, in order to do what he finally realized was right!

We need young people who will go back to what God designed for them to be!

God's young people are like Joshua and Caleb (and like Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego), who did not go along with the crowd, but took a stand for what they knew was right (based upon God's revelation of right) and in the face of what they knew was wrong! God's young people are like Samuel who humbly said to God, "Speak, for Your servant hears," and then spoke God's Word, even if the message may have been offensive to its hearers! God's young people are like David, who stood up to the imposing enemy of God, even when no one else had the courage to do it! God's young people are like Jonathan, who chose a godly friendship to the detriment of his own potential power and prosperity! God's young people are like Josiah, who learned God's will and changed the course of an entire nation! God's young people are like Jesus, who was respectful and obedient to His parents, when He may have been the only child in history who might have known better than them! God's young people are like Timothy, who set a Christian example for everyone else to follow! Young men and young women, it is time!

Modern culture has utterly twisted what God designed young men and young women to be! Whether it is popular or not, whether it fits the mold or not, we need young people who will go back to what God designed for them to be! Our families will be better for it, society will be better for it, and each young person will be better for it! It is time!

Spiritual Awareness

Cade Courtley (former SEAL team leader, author and TV personality) wrote in his book, SEAL Survival Guide, “In military-speak, situational awareness is defined as the ability to identify, process and comprehend the critical elements of information about what is happening to the team with regard to a mission. More simply, it’s being aware of what is going on around you...These [the unaware] are the very people who most often get victimized or end up on the casualty list.” He then included some steps that we need to take if we are going to have a keen sense of situational awareness.

As I thought about those steps, I began to see a Biblical application in being spiritually aware. Here are some things that we need to consider in order to be spiritually aware of our surroundings.

1. Look at what others around you are doing. “Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith” (Heb. 13:7).

2. Look for things that seem out of place. “For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is an infant. But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil” (Heb. 5:13-14).

3. Determine where you’d go if you had to seek immediate help. “Let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds” (Heb. 10:24).

4. Find the way of escape. “No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it” (1 Cor. 10:13).

5. Determine whether you are someone others could follow. “Likewise urge the young men to be sensible; in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified, sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us” (Tit. 2:6-8).

This is a simplified way of thinking about how to deal with temptations and struggles and how to help others. We need to be reminded of the battle and the enemy that we are fighting against. Our enemy is very aware of us. “Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour” (1 Pet. 5:8). Please be aware, keep your head up and ready. If you are not prepared, you will become the next victim.

If you are not prepared, you will become the next victim.

“Lord, if You are willing”

It would have taken a great deal of boldness for a leper to enter in among the crowds and especially to have approached Jesus Himself. One such man came and worshiped Jesus in Matthew 8, and then he said these fascinating words, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean” (8:2). The words express respect, “Lord.” The words express humility, “If you are willing.” The words express confidence, “You can make me clean.”

Of course, the leper was speaking about and focused on his physical well-being, but the same words could come from our hearts today regarding our spiritual well-being. How much respect do we have for Jesus? How much humility do we exhibit in His presence? How much confidence do we have that He can thoroughly cleanse us from a disease that is infinitely worse than leprosy—a disease called sin?

Thank God that we have a Savior who is willing to cleanse us!

Masking our shame

Have you noticed what’s been happening in supermarket lines in recent years? For decades, check-out lines have been flanked by the latest issues of tabloids and popular magazines. Over the years, the cover images on many of the high-profile periodicals have grown more and more risqué, with women wearing less and less clothing. Just what every young boy standing in line with his mother needs to see, let alone the grown men who gawk at these professional models. Well, someone somewhere must have complained about those magazine covers, because many times you will now find a translucent sheet of plastic placed in front of those magazines.

Think about it. The pictures became so salacious that it was determined to slightly mask the cover. Notice, it was NOT decided to stop taking those photos. It was NOT decided to stop printing those magazines. It was NOT decided to stop placing those magazines in prime locations to reach every possible target. No! It was decided to just put a little cover over it.

When wrong is wrong, putting a mask over it doesn’t make it right (Isa. 5:20; Jer. 6:15)! – DS

What a blessing it is to be a member of the Palm Beach Lakes church. During this long time of dealing with extreme pain, the many cards and phone calls have helped tremendously. It is comforting to know I had your prayers. I have a procedure scheduled for April 26 on my hip. Please pray that it will succeed.

Answering Bible Questions

Sunday Morning Bible Classes (May 15 - June 5)

For Adults

- What does the Holy Spirit do in the life of a Christian?
- How can I deal with the forgiveness of my old sin and overcome my guilt?
- How can we know that the Bible is reliable and that our English translations are accurate?
- Is it wrong for a Christian woman to teach a man who is not a Christian?
- Does it really matter what we believe and what we teach if "we're all serving the same God"?
- What can I say to an antagonistic atheist who continually attacks God?
- How do you teach the Bible as prime authority in a quick sit down?
- How do I answer the question regarding the Sabbath and why we do not keep it today?
- What are some Biblical and practical principles for managing debt?
- What about having praise teams or making instrumental sounds during singing?
- How can a Christian live an abundant life on this earth?
- How can I best answer the doctrine of "Once Saved, Always Saved"?

For Young Adults

- How do you explain to a non-believer why God told the Israelites to kill people?
- How do we prove the O.T. prophecies concerning Jesus were actually fulfilled and not just falsely recorded by N.T. writers?
- If you have been baptized into the Lord's church, is eternal life 100% guaranteed?
- If God hardened Pharaoh's heart, didn't that remove his free will and force him to sin against God?

For Senior High

- Does it really matter what we believe?
- Does it really matter where we go to church?
- Does it really matter if we abide by God's moral code?
- Does it really matter how I dress?

For Junior High

- Why do we not obey Old Testament laws?
- How do you share the gospel with friends who aren't believers?
- How did people know about God before the Bible?
- What will heaven be like?
