Words Wise Men Should Not Use

Solomon is often called the wisest man in the Bible. As a youth, he asked God to give him wisdom, and our amazing God answered his prayer abundantly. “All the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart” (1 Kings 10:24). If we want to share in this wisdom from heaven, we must spend time meditating on the words of this wise king. Look at these four times Divine wisdom says we should not talk.

Do not talk about helping someone tomorrow when you can help today. Solomon said, “Do not say to your neighbor, ‘Go, and come back, and tomorrow I will give it,’ when you have it with you” (Prov. 3:28). There are times when you may have to wait about helping another, but Solomon says help a person today if you can.

The context of these words have to do with benevolence, but the principle applies to many situation in our lives. If others ask us for spiritual help, we need to help them today! They may not come back to ask again when we do not eagerly show our willingness to help immediately.

Do not say that you will “settle the score” with a person who has wronged you. “Do not say, ‘I will recompense evil’; wait for the Lord, and He will save you” (Prov. 20:22).

One truth taught repeatedly in the Bible is that no one will ever get away with doing evil. Paul says it this way, “God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap” (Gal. 6:7). How can you turn the other cheek? How can you give food and drink to an enemy? It’s very simple. Vengeance belongs to the Lord, and He will always repay (Rom. 12:19). There is no need for us to preempt God.

Here are four sentences which the wisest man says we must not say!

Do not say that you will treat others the way they are treating you. Listen to Solomon again. “Do not say, ‘I will do to him just as he has done to me, I will render to the man according to his work’” (Prov. 24:29). These words are diametrically opposed to the “Golden Rule” given by Jesus. Treating others like they treat you is a message from Satan. We live by a much higher rule, putting ourselves in their place.

Do not say that the past is better than the present. Solomon said, “Do not say, ‘Why were the former days better than these?’ For you do not inquire wisely concerning this” (Ecc. 7:10). It is not wrong to remember the past, but it is foolish to live in the past. Things are always changing, and while some things in the past seem better, we must live in the present world.

Do you want to be wise like Solomon? Then take time to read what he wrote. Make his words the words which rule your life. Sometimes we talk too much!

As Loyal to Your Church As to Your Political Party?

Political party loyalty is an amazingly personal matter, and it is so ingrained in people that most will vote for their party’s candidate regardless of who the person is. There have actually been occasions when voters knowingly voted for a dead man because of their unwavering allegiance to their party.

Some would never consider leaving their party because it has been the party of their family going back for generations. Some would never even listen to the other side because they have made significant personal and financial contributions to their own party. For many, their political party is all they have ever known—they “grew up” in that party—and so they are committed to it regardless of any information that is presented to them, any knowledge that they acquire, or any obvious truths that come to light.

This article is NOT about politics. It is NOT about your political party. It is NOT about your devotion to your political party or how you vote. The first paragraph is to set the foundation and illustrate a point for the rest of this article.

Loyalty to one’s religious group or church is an amazingly personal matter, and it is so ingrained in people that many would never even consider leaving their group. There have actually been religious leaders who have been proven to be fakes, frauds and even felons, but there were some followers who remained constant, no matter what. Some would never consider leaving their religious group because it has been their family’s church going back for generations. Some would never even listen to opposing points of view because they have made significant personal and financial contributions to their own church. For many, their religious group is all they have ever known—they “grew up” in that church—and so they are committed to it regardless of any information that is presented to them, any knowledge that they acquire, or any obvious truths that come to light.

Have you ever put “what you’ve always believed” under the microscope?

Would you take a moment and ask yourself, “Does that describe me?” Have you ever examined your belief system? Have you ever scrutinized the origin, foundation and doctrines of your religious group? Have you ever put “what you’ve always been taught” and “what you’ve always believed” under the microscope of God’s Word? Have you ever put it all to the “test,” to “see whether they are from God” (1 John 4:1)?

I know, I know. There are two topics that you never discuss in polite company—politics and religion. And I’ve hit them both in this article. But, there’s a big difference. One of these topics has NO bearing on the eternal destiny of my soul and one of these topics has ALL bearing on the eternal destiny of my soul. I’d better make sure I’m in the right place!

Jesus' Spittle

"Jesus took him aside from the crowd, by himself, and put His fingers into his ears, and after spitting, He touched his tongue with the saliva; and looking up to heaven with a deep sigh, He said to him, 'Ephphatha!' that is, 'Be opened!' and his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was removed, and he began speaking plainly" (Mark 7:32-35). "Taking the blind man by the hand, He brought him out of the village; and after spitting on his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, 'Do you see anything?' and he looked up and said, 'I see men, for I see them like trees, walking around.' Then again He laid His hands on his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and began to see everything clearly" (Mark 8:23-25). "When He had said this, He spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and applied the clay to his eyes, and said to him, 'Go, wash in the pool of Siloam' (which is translated, Sent). So he went away and washed, and came back seeing" (John 9:6-7).

Why is Jesus spitting on people? This is not something that we would do today. Most people would rub an oil on it and call it good. Jesus uses spit. Spitting on someone is clearly offensive (Matt. 26:67; 27:30). Why would Jesus use spit when on other occasions He healed people just by speaking?

During that time, spit was considered to have healing properties, especially for blindness. The Jews wrote of it in the Palestinian Talmud (collection of Jewish traditions), and Pliny (61-113 A.D.) wrote about it in his Historia Naturalis. The Gentile and Jew alike attested to the healing powers of saliva. Jesus could have used that common belief to aid in the healing aspect of the miracle and to create in the person receiving the healing a certain expectation of being healed.

So, what appears to be a strange practice is more of a testimony of authority.

A more likely possibility has to do with another Jewish tradition. This tradition states that if a birthright is contested, with more than one man claiming to be the firstborn, then a test was given. The one whose saliva healed someone first would be considered the firstborn son. In turn, this suggested that the spit of the firstborn son was the most potent in its healing properties. So, when this is laid beside

John chapters 8 and 9, we see a larger picture unfolding. In John 8, Jesus is nearly stoned when He asserts that He is the Son of God and God Himself. The events of chapter 9 seem to be a continuation of chapter 8. Jesus said that the healing of the blind man was to glorify God (9:3-5). By healing this man, He showed again that He was sent by God and that God had sent His firstborn son. So, what appears to be a strange practice is more of a testimony to the authority that God had given Him. Jesus was masterful at using the moments and opportunities presented to Him to teach great truth.

Hiding fire inside your shirt—Not a good idea!

If you tried to carry an ice cream cone inside your shirt, how do you think that would work out? Definitely not well, and it would make a huge mess. What about if you tried to carry fire inside your shirt? How do you think that would work out? That may seem like a silly question, but there are too many who are doing just that and do not realize they are being consumed!

In a very explicit warning to abstain from all sexual temptations outside of marriage, the Lord posts this high alert: "Can a man take fire to his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be seared? So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; whoever touches her shall not be innocent" (Prov. 6:27-29).

The "lust" and "allure" (6:25) that drives one's sexual passions is a fire that burns (cf. 1 Cor. 7:9). To allow that fire into one's heart is to set oneself ablaze with a craving that is extremely hard to control. Brothers, we cannot afford to let even a spark into our "bosom"! – DS

The gospel is for all!

Do you really believe that God loves all people? Well, He does (John 3:16)! Do you really believe that God sent Jesus to die for all people? Well, He did (Heb. 2:9)! Do you really believe that God wants all people to be saved? Well, He does (1 Tim. 2:4)! Do you really believe that the gospel is for all people? Well, it is (Rom. 1:16)! Do you really believe that God commands all people to believe in Jesus? Well, He does (Acts 16:31)! Do you really believe that God commands all people to repent of their sins? Well, He does (Acts 17:30)! Do you really believe that God commands all people to be baptized for the remission of their sins? Well, He does (Acts 2:38)!

To my brothers and sisters in Christ, here's the point. Undoubtedly, you really believe all of these truths. So, let me ask this. Do you really believe that God has sent each of us to teach the gospel to all people? Well, He did (Mark 16:15-16)! "Where sin has gone must go His grace! The gospel is for all!" – DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

- 1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God
"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).
- 2. Repent of your sinful ways
"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).
- 3. Confess your faith in Jesus
"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).
- 4. Be immersed in water
"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).
- 5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service
"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).

I Praise You because

I am Fearfully and Wonderfully
Made

Psalm 139:14
