A Spirit of Fear, Ashamed of His Testimony

Paul's last letter was to Timothy, Paul's son in the faith and a younger preacher who had been the apostle's companion. Read the following words carefully, and discover a problem many Christians face. "God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord" (2 Tim. 1:7-8). Timothy knew the truth, but circumstances in his life had caused him to withdraw because of his fear.

Think of the many examples found throughout the Bible where God's messengers boldly stood for their God and were not at all timid to openly stand for heaven's saving message. We may not know what caused Timothy's timidity, but we know so much about others who boldly spoke for the Lord.

Elijah was not afraid to stand for truth. Who has not stood in amazement at the confrontation he had with the 450 prophets of Baal? How can anyone forget his mockery of them when Baal would not send fire to consume their sacrifice? Paul's words to Timothy describe him so well—he was not ashamed of the testimony of our Lord.

Nathan was not afraid to stand for truth. His friend, King David, had done wrong and had successfully hidden his sins from an entire nation. The king was a lying, adulterous murderer. God's messenger, Nathan, went into the presence of the king who had already shown he would kill others just to cover his sin. What difference would it make if he murdered the only man on earth who knew all the details of his evil actions? Yet, Nathan courageously said, "Thou art the man." These four words could have cost the prophet his life, yet was not ashamed of the testimony of our Lord.

John the Baptist was not afraid to stand for truth.

The Jewish world knew how Herod had taken the wife of his brother, Philip, to be his own wife. John confronted the king. John told him that he had violated the law of God in his actions. The Greek indicates that this was not something he said just once, but over and over again he reminded the king of his sin. It cost John his life, but he was not ashamed of the testimony of our Lord.

Are we afraid to stand for truth? Our nation has decided that it will openly redefine marriage and kill the innocent souls in the womb. Led by ungodly men in Washington, values which once were sacred, as we sought to be one nation under God, are now cast aside. It is not that His laws are just being ignored. Laws are being passed which unashamedly permit men to mock God. How do many Christians react? With a spirit of fear, they truly are ashamed of the testimony of the Lord. We ask, "How long, O Lord, how long?" Are you ashamed?

He has not given us the spirit of fear, but wants us to never be ashamed of Him

Election Depression Immunization

There is an expression which has emerged this election season that seems to be a new one (or maybe I just don't remember hearing it in previous years). Various news outlets are talking about people who are suffering with "election depression."

There are numerous factors that are surely involved in this, including how insufferably long the campaign process is and how horribly vicious the personal attacks are, but let's avoid that political skirmish for right now. What can a Christian do to inoculate against "election depression"?

First, remember that Jesus wins every time you vote for Him! There is no such thing as "wasting a vote" on Jesus! When you "elect" Jesus as your King (John 18:37), your Lord (John 20:28), your Ruler (Matt. 2:6; Rev. 1:5), His victory is your victory! "Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. 15:57). Romans 8:37 does not teach that Christians will be (one day in the future) "conquerors," but it affirms that right here and now (in the present tense), "We are more than conquerors thorough Him who loved us." If you're suffering from election depression, remember that "the Lord I know ruleth o'er everything, and all of my worry is vain!"

Second, remember that Jesus will never mislead you!

While it is hard to know sometimes if a certain person (including a political candidate) is being truthful, there is one thing we know for sure when we vote for Jesus—He is "the truth" (John 14:6). He "cannot lie" (Tit. 1:2), for it is "impossible" for Him to violate His nature (Heb. 6:18). Pick up His word. Read it. Believe every syllable of it with full confidence! If you're suffering from election depression, remember that "He rules the world with truth and grace!"

What can a Christian do to inoculate against "election depression"?

Third, remember that Jesus will not abandon you after you elect Him! How many times have politicians abandoned their campaign promises and gone about to fulfill their own agenda? Not Jesus! He not only stands by His Word (John 12:48) but He stands by you (2 Tim. 4:17)! The promise of heaven is that those who have Christ as their King can "know that all things work together for good" (Rom. 8:28).

Any why wouldn't it? If Jesus is "with us always" (cf. Matt. 28:20) and will never leave our side (cf. Heb. 13:5b), wouldn't it naturally follow that He is going to protect us and look out for us...now and eternally? Faithful Christian, you can "know that you have eternal life" (1 John 5:13)! (See "know" again?) If you're suffering from election depression, remember that "He will never, never leave me, nor yet forsake me here!"

Jesus is asking for your vote! Don't be ashamed to vote for Him and to let others know He's always got your vote!

Levitical Worship Handed Down

It is clear that the Hebrew people had a different system of worship than what we are commanded to have. At the heart of that system is the Levitical priest. When Moses writes Deuteronomy, he summarizes the service of the Levites, “At that time the Lord set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord to serve Him and to bless in His name until this day” (10:8). In this passage there are three specific areas of their service that are highlighted: to carry the ark, to stand before Him in service and to bless His name. Each of these can play a role in causing us to examine our role in worship.

It must first be noted that the Levites had been set apart. We see this happen in Exodus 32 in relation to the idol worship at Sinai. Moses called to him all the men who were for God and only the family of Levi came. He said to them, “Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, ‘Every man of you put his sword upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor.’” So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people fell that day. Then Moses said, “Dedicate yourselves today to the Lord for every man has been against his son and against his brother in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today” (Ex. 32:27-29). Tie in, “If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple” (Luke 14:26). It is easy to begin to see the parallel to us today. We must be set apart, even if it is from our own family.

To carry the Ark of the Covenant was to carry the central icon and the physical resting place of the presence of God on earth. With it came the tabernacle and the furnishings of the tent. In a similar way, we are the temple of God. “Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?” (1 Cor. 6:19).

Worship,
on purpose,
with a purpose
and
for a purpose.

To stand before the Lord and serve Him is in reference to the sacrificial system. It was the Levites that were commanded to administer these sacred offerings. We, too, have been called to a life of service. “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession...” (1 Pet. 2:9).

To bless Him carries the idea of worship. “To bless” in Hebrew means “bend the knee.” It is our privilege to do the same in our worship to God and when we kneel in prayer. “Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice...” (Rom. 12:1).

A word we don’t hear very often

While listening to the radio the other day, an advertisement came on that used a word that we don’t hear very often down in South Florida. It just doesn’t really fit in around here. Everyone understands its meaning and what’s involved, but because of our environment, it is rarely heard. The word is “autumn.” We just don’t do autumn in South Florida! [smile]

That got me to thinking about other words that we don’t hear anymore—Biblical words that everyone understands, but ones that many prefer not to hear. Words like “commandment,” “submission,” “obedience,” “sin,” “hell,” “damnation,” “judgment.” These words (and others like them) have been determined in some circles as “offensive” or “harsh,” and therefore are rarely heard in some places. But, is it really up to us to determine which Bible words are palatable and which are not? Is it up to us to “soften” Biblical truth, so that it might be more appealing?

We have a responsibility to speak the truth (in the words God uses) in Christian love! – DS

The balance of Jesus as “my personal Savior”

A common expression used in Christendom in recent years is to speak of Jesus as one’s “personal Savior.” It is usually used in the context of urging a person to “accept Jesus as your personal Savior,” which is often tied to saying a prayer and asking Jesus into one’s heart. However, there is no Scriptural support for this as a means of salvation from sins.

There is certainly nothing wrong with speaking of Jesus as one’s “personal Savior.” His role as Savior is certainly very personal. However, for Jesus to be one’s “Savior,” one must obey what He commands as “Lord.” Four times in his second letter, Peter refers to Jesus as our/the “Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (1:11; 2:20; 3:2, 18). Jesus’ role as Savior cannot be divorced from His role as Lord! In order to be our “Lord,” we must obey His commandments (1 Thess. 4:1-3). Likewise, in order to be our “Savior,” we must obey His commandments (Heb. 5:9).

Obedying His commands as Lord (Matt. 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-16) makes Him my Savior! – DS
