A Psalm of Thanksgiving

The book of Psalms is remarkable in so many ways. Many of the psalms come from the heart of a shepherd boy of Bethlehem and give us great insight into the very soul of a man after God's own heart.

One of the psalms repeats a phrase over and over. The psalmist said, "Oh, that men would give thanks to the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men" (Psa. 107:1, 8, 15, 21, 31). This phrase makes a natural division of five situations in this psalm where men should be filled with thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving for redemption. The first section (vss. 1-7) describes the times when God brought Israel from adversity and returned them to the land He promised Abraham's descendants. While it is true the sin of God's people often was the reason they were scattered, the psalm shows just how merciful God is toward His children. Those who were redeemed from the nations could so readily sing this psalm of thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving for souls which have been refreshed. In this section, the psalmist looks at the souls which have been brought low by the adversity around them. Their hearts are filled with darkness which is the result of ignoring God. They are bound up in affliction. Yet, when they cried out to God, He heard them. Their souls were filled with the blessing He gave to them. Their lives turned into joy because His mercy gave them what had been missing. The psalmist said, "Give thanks to the Lord for His wonderful works."

Thanksgiving for deliverance to those who were at the gates of death. This third section (vss. 15-20) parallels thoughts found in the previous section of those who were surrounded by distress. They were so burdened they could not even eat, yet when they cried out to the Lord, He heard them and saved them out of all their afflictions. "Oh, that men would give thanks to the Lord for His goodness."

Thanksgiving from those who were tossed in the seas. The psalmist turns his attention to those who sailed the seas and found themselves surrounded by tempestuous waves. As the waves lifted them to the heavens and then dropped them in the depths of the troughs, hope could so easily be lost. At their wit's end, they cried out to God, and He heard them, calmed the storms and brought them to safe havens.

Thanksgiving from those who assemble to worship in the company of the elders. The mercy of God is shown in the fruitful seasons where He waters the wilderness and feeds His people. Their crops increase and their herds multiply. He exalts the poor. Oh, that men would give thanks for all He does.

Thanksgiving from our hearts. The imagery in this psalm is different from what is around us, but the lesson is so obvious. God help us to give thanksgiving for all He does!

God help us to give thanks to the Lord for all that He has done for us!

There's No Better Comfort Than God's Comfort!

Too often when we are reading the Bible, there are words, phrases and clauses that we just run right over without stopping to consider, dwell and meditate. An example is found in a relative clause that Paul used in 2 Corinthians 7:6. The point that Paul is making in the passage is that Titus had brought good (i.e., comforting) news about the church in Corinth. But the passage does not say that Titus "comforted" Paul, but "God...comforted." Now, I want you to focus on the four words used as a relative clause between the word "God" and the word "comforted."

Paul drops this little nugget and keeps right on going. Let's stop and unwrap it for a moment, for we are informed that we serve a God, "who comforts the downcast." Or, as the NASB translates it, "who comforts the depressed." This letter began by calling our God, "...the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts (present tense, continually) us in all our tribulation [affliction, NASB; troubles, NIV]" (1:3-4). Did you see the word "all" used twice? When we are downcast or depressed, our God of all comfort comforts us! How does He do that?

God's presence is a constant comfort! David wrote, "Where can I flee from Your presence?" (Psa. 139:7). A child of God learns that no matter where he finds himself, "Even there

Your hand shall lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me" (139:10)! It doesn't get any better than that! God is omnipresent! That comforts me when I'm depressed!

God's knowledge is a constant comfort! David wrote, "O Lord, You have searched me and known me. You know...You understand...You comprehend...You know it altogether" (139:1-4). God knows everything that I have faced, am facing or will face! When I've lost a loved one, when a friend has hurt me, when I've suffered a major financial loss, when my health is failing, when I'm lonely, my God knows! God is omniscient! That comforts me when I'm depressed!

God's ability is a constant comfort! David wrote, "You formed...knitted...embroidered" (139:13-15). Knowing that God was so intricately capable of so much in my life even before I was born, how capable is He in my life right now? "Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well" (v. 14). "My God is so big, so strong and so mighty! There's nothing my God cannot do!" (cf. Eph. 3:20-21; Mark 10:27). God is omnipotent! That comforts me when I'm depressed!

God's Word comforts (Rom. 15:4)! God's promises comfort (1 Thess. 4:13-18)! God's people comfort (2 Cor. 1:3-7; 1 Th. 5:14)! When I'm around God's Word, His promises and His people, my God comforts me, even when I'm depressed!

Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well!

“Behold then the kindness and severity of God”

What would Paul have us to see in this passage? “Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God’s kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off” (Rom. 11:22). It seems a contradictory concept. Can God be both kind and severe?

The answer is yes, God is just. It is the justness of the Lord that demands He is both kind and severe.

In the immediate context, Paul is talking about us, the Gentiles. He states earlier that the hearts of some had been hardened and God allowed them to choose to reject Jesus. Because they stumbled and crucified the Christ, salvation has been made available to all (Rom. 11:11-12). Paul does point out that not all Jews were or are currently against Christ. He himself was among a faithful remnant (Rom. 11:1-5). It is into that faithful remnant that we as Gentiles are grafted—into the kindness of God and the righteous ones belonging to the Lord.

Here again the Bible uses an example from horticulture to explain a Biblical truth. The art of grafting branches from one tree onto another has been around for centuries. The branches that were cut off, in this case the hard-hearted rebellious Jews, leave the soft inner part of the tree exposed.

To that the wild olive branch is attached and begins to nourish itself from the new root system. We as Gentiles are the wild olive branch that has been grafted into the “rich root” of the olive tree that God had prepared (Rom. 11:17). So, if we continue in His kindness, we will continue to be a part of that tree.

This great blessing comes with a warning. “Do not be arrogant toward the branches; but if you are arrogant, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you. You will say then, ‘Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.’ Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear; for if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you, either” (Rom. 11:18-21). For the church in Rome, they all needed to understand there was no second-class Christian. Paul wrote it this way, “For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him” (Rom. 10:12).

The kindness and severity of God are both a warning and an encouragement. It is the severity of God that would cause me to fear the repercussions of sin, knowing that I could be cut off from the root. It is the goodness of God that makes me run from sin and towards Him. Do not fall from the tree into which God has grafted you.

Do not fall from the tree into which God has grafted you.

A paregoric Christian

As Paul closed his letter to the church at Colosse, he mentioned several of his “fellow workers for the kingdom of God,” and he had this to say about them: “they have proved to be a comfort to me” (Col. 4:11). What a great compliment! But, it’s even better than that! The Greek word for “comfort” in this verse is paregoria (only here in the New Testament). It was used especially as a medical term, in the sense of soothing, solace, alleviating. From this word is derived our English word “paregoric,” a medicine that soothes and lessens pain. These brethren who came to Paul, while he was in a Roman prison, proved to be a medicine, which soothed and lessened his pain, discomfort and discouragement, just by their presence. What a great compliment!

Are you a paregoric Christian? Are you a brother or sister in Christ who is soothing to be around and offers solace and easing of pain to your fellow Christians? Some Christians seem to have a knack for providing a natural, soothing comfort in times of stress? Do you? – DS

Agonizing for my brethren in what?

When you think about a Christian “laboring fervently” (NKJV) or “laboring earnestly” (NASB) or “always striving” (ASV) or “always struggling” (ESV), what do you think about it? I’m sure the constant struggle of faithful living comes to mind. But what if two words were added to the end of each of these phrases above: “laboring fervently...laboring earnestly...always striving... always struggling for you”? Those two words give that expression a whole new meaning. Now, the constant struggle is on behalf of fellow Christians. BUT, the verse isn’t done yet!

In commending Epaphras to his home congregation in Colosse (Col. 4:12), Paul wanted the brethren to know how much Epaphras loved them, thought of them and labored for them. The Greek word for “laboring fervently” is agonizomai. Do you see the word “agonize” in that? It was an athletic term that carried the idea of wrestling. Now, go back to the verse. Epaphras wrestled fervently for his brethren...“in his prayers.” Wow! What a thought! Do you labor fervently? For your fellow brethren? In your prayers? Think about the import of that! – DS
