Doctrine Is Not a Four-Letter Word

The spirit of compromise which permeates our society may be blessing in some areas, but it has little place in regard to the clear teachings of the Bible. Its presence has led to a watered-down teaching in churches in America. While the Bible doctrine about morality is clear, denominations are struggling to deal with divorce for every cause, living together without marriage and homosexuality. The same is true about how God wants us to worship, the organization of church, the path to salvation and many aspects of Christian living. It is as though there is no doctrinal teaching on these matters. This spirit of compromise has made doctrine a four-letter word.

Jesus Taught Doctrine

Take time to read the Sermon on the Mount in its entirety. Do not stop after the Beatitudes (which some would not view as doctrine) but read all three chapters where the sermon is found. It is filled with a precise teaching and leaves little room for religious compromise. Immediately after the beatitudes, Jesus attacks the false teaching of the religious leaders in a series of topics centered around "You have heard it has been said" and Jesus' words, "But I say unto you." Clear doctrinal teaching is what Jesus did. He did not think that doctrine was a four-letter word. He exalted it.

Tragically, the spirit of compromise has made doctrine a four-letter word

At the end of these three chapters, pay special attention to what is said, "When He had finished these sayings, the people were astonished at His doctrine, for He taught them as one who has authority" (Matt. 7:28-29). Churches in America, where the teachings of the Bible are being compromised, stand in marked contrast to the doctrinal preaching of Jesus. Remember that Jesus said, "My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me" (John 7:16). What did He do with that doctrine given to Him? He gave it to the apostles. "For I have given to them the words which You have given to Me" (John 17:8).

The Apostles Taught Doctrine

What did the apostles do with those words? How did they use them? After Jesus ascended to heaven, they gave the doctrine to the world. On the day the church began it is stated, "They continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine" (Acts 2:42). They taught in the temple and when arrested were charged, "You have filled all Jerusalem with this doctrine" (Acts 5:28). When Paul taught in Athens his listeners said, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak" (Acts 17:19). The apostles taught that salvation comes when men "...obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine" (Rom. 6:17).

Let's talk more about doctrine in next week's article. Remember that doctrine is not a four-letter word!

My Sister's Tie

There are dozens of neckties in my closet, and many of them have a special meaning for one reason or another. But every time I wear the yellow one with blue Paris landmarks, it brings some special thoughts to mind. My little sister gave me that tie in 1998, when she returned from her senior class trip to Europe. What do you get for your brother who's a preacher? A tie!

Therefore, for a number of reasons, that tie immediately became a special one—because of who gave it to me and where it came from. Then, after my sister died in 2001, all of a sudden that tie took on an even greater meaning to me. Every time I see the tie in my closet, I think of my sister. Every time I wear it, I am reminded of her. I would never, ever give it away or trade it to anyone. It has more value to me than to anyone else on earth, and more since she died.

What does this have to do with "the rest of us"? This is not an exact parallel, but consider the following.

When you look in your "closet of days" pertaining to any week, is there anything about the "Sunday" hanging in your "closet of days" that calls to mind something special? And, then, when it is that time for "Sunday" to come out of your "closet of days" and for you to "wear" that particular day for a period of 24 hours, are you flooded with joy, love and precious memories of what makes that day so unique?

Some ties are just "ordinary ties" that do not have a particular reason to stand out above the others. Some days are just "ordinary days" that do not have a particular reason to stand out above the others. But, SUNDAY is THE DAY that ought to be the one that we look forward to "wearing" every week. When it is not Sunday, we ought to be looking forward to it being Sunday. When it is Sunday, we ought to enjoy that day to its fullest heavenly potential.

And why is that? It is believed that when the apostle John recorded about events that transpired "on the Lord's Day" (Rev. 1:10), that he was referring to Sunday. That being the case, Sunday ought to hold a special place for us because it is "the Lord's Day"! Sunday is the day that Jesus Christ was "declared to be the Son of God with power...by the resurrection from the dead" (Rom. 1:4). That makes it extra special! Sunday is the day every week when we get to "remember" the Savior's personal sacrifice on the cross and to humbly "discern His body" as we eat of the bread and drink of the cup (1 Cor. 11:23-29). What memories flood my soul on that day!

I could never trade that day away! I could never take it for granted! How could I ever let it lose one iota of its specialness to me? Sunday is coming! Are you ready to "wear" it?

How could I ever let it lose one iota of its specialness to me?

What Blessing Is There In Serving God?

“Your words have been arrogant against Me, says the LORD. Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against You?’ You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked in mourning before the LORD of hosts?’” (Mal. 3:13-14). You’ve heard people talk this way. Something to the effect of, “I don’t want to be a Christian because I couldn’t do anything fun.” Another is, “There are too many rules. I think God wants me to be happy.” As though someone serving God couldn’t be happy. Maybe that’s all they have seen or perceive of what it means to serve God. We know that is not the truth.

In the book of Proverbs, there is a plethora of blessings to the upright and for those that are obedient and practice clean living. “The hope of the righteous is gladness” (10:28). “The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright” (10:29). “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life” (11:30). “A good man will obtain favor from the LORD” (12:2). “In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence” (14:26). “But He hears the prayer of the righteous” (14:29). “He who pursues righteousness and loyalty finds life, righteousness and honor” (21:21). “But the blameless will inherit good” (28:10). “A faithful man will abound with blessings” (28:20).

If they don’t see the blessings, they’re looking the wrong way.

There are many more, but these highlight the idea that God is trying to share with us. We are truly blessed in our service to Him. Jesus said, “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly” (John. 10:10). So many people see God as the thief. They see Him as the one that is taking away the “fun,” but they have been deceived to be slaves of the flesh. Paul says, “In which you formerly walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience. Among them we too all formerly lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest” (Eph. 2:2-3). If people can’t see the blessing in serving God, then they are staring off into the darkness and trapped in serving and only making provisions for the flesh (Rom. 13:14).

How do we keep our focus on the blessings that lie ahead? We continue in faithful service. There will always be days that the “body” does not want to serve. In that moment, we must visualize what is at stake. Those moments are the battles we fight so we can win the war. After a decisive victory over the Philistines, Samuel “took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Ebenezer, saying, ‘Thus far the LORD has helped us’” (1 Sam. 7:12). Every battle we win is a testament to God’s faithfulness and blessing of our service.

Setting rules for yourself...in every situation

Teenagers are sometimes faced with challenging circumstances. When friends hang out, there are often different rules at each friend’s houses. Some parents have strict rules. Some parents are more lax and maybe have very few limits at all. So, where should they hang out? And, if there are no rules, then should “anything go” at those houses?

The reality is that teenagers are not the only ones faced with these situations. Every Christian, at some point or another, finds himself in a situation where there are no set boundaries on what he does. He (or she) could literally do anything and would not “get into any trouble for it.”

That’s when we need to remember “whose house we’re living in.” As Christians, we are in the family of God (Gal. 3:26-29), and we are always “in His house.” So, wherever we go and with whomever we happen to be “hanging,” our Father’s “rules” still apply. This is not to “cramp our style”! This is actually to simplify (and enhance) our lives (John 10:10; Deut. 6:24)! – DS

Who would this action be “against”?

It may be that we sometimes look at sin and think that it cannot be that big of a deal, especially if no one else knows about it or if no one else is harmed by it. We could not be more wrong!

Consider the story of Joseph in Egypt with Potiphar’s wife.

Notice the contrast (and therefore, the emphasis) that Joseph places on the consequences of his potential sin. When Potiphar’s wife persistently tempted Joseph “to lie with her and to be with her,” Joseph spoke of his two masters very differently. “Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand. There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against...?” (Gen. 39:8-10). Did he say, “...sin against Potiphar”? He could have, and he would have been consistent in his explanation. But, NO! Joseph knew even more that his sin would be “against God”!

Is sin a big deal? Yes! Huge! Every single one is “against God” (see Psa. 51:4)! – DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved” (Acts 16:31).

2. Repent of your sinful ways

“Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out” (Acts 3:19).

3. Confess your faith in Jesus

“If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved” (Rom. 10:9).

4. Be immersed in water

“He who believes and is baptized will be saved” (Mark 16:16).

5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service

“Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life” (Rev. 2:10).
