I KNOW the Lord WILL find a way for me.

I KNOW the Lord WILL find a way for me.

If I walk in heaven's light,

Shun the wrong and do the right,

I KNOW the Lord WILL find a way for me.

Tomorrow You Shall Die

While many know the details of the lives of some of the kings of Israel like David and Solomon, their lives would be so blessed today by studying the details of the life of king Hezekiah. He was king of the southern kingdom of Judah when the ten northern tribes were destroyed by the Assyrians. Assyria's army then came and surrounded Jerusalem. The prayer of Hezekiah moved God to annihilate 185,000 Assyrians who had surrounded Jerusalem without Hezekiah's army having to shoot a single arrow (2 Kg.s 19).

Shortly after this great victory Hezekiah became sick, and Isaiah came to him with this message from God. "Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live" (2 Kgs. 20:1). What an amazing message, and what a blessing this horrendous day can be to us if we just imagine we had been that king. How would you respond if you knew that this would be the last day of your life and that tomorrow you would die?

Read all the details of what happened that day and what Hezekiah did when the message came to him. Because of the king's actions, God added fifteen years to Hezekiah's life. Tragically, he made grave mistakes in those years.

The truth is that whether we die today, tomorrow or fifteen years from now really does not matter. Some day I will die. Some day you will die. Hear the words of God, "It is appointed for men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Heb. 9:27). We have the appointment to die, but unlike Hezekiah, we do not know the time of that appointment. The message for us is so obvious. All of us must make sure we are ready to keep that appointment and the event which follows.

The reason for this urgency is found in the last words of this verse from Hebrews—"...after this the judgment." Daniel Webster, the American statesman, said that the most sobering thought he ever had was that some day he must stand before God and give an account for how he lived. Consider the fact that the lives of all men would be changed if they never forgot this sobering thought, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad" (2 Cor. 5:10).

Unlike what happened to Hezekiah, God has not sent the prophet Isaiah to come to our house to tell us that we should set our houses in order for the end of our life has come. However, is this not the message found repeatedly throughout the scriptures? We may not know for certain the time of our death, but we know for certain that we shall die. How would you live today if you knew that this would be your last day on this earth? It could be!

How would you respond if you knew today would be your last day?

That "Outsiders" May Become "Insiders"

First Corinthians 5:12 draws a contrast between those "who are outside" and those "who are inside." What is Paul talking about? He is contrasting "people of this world" (5:10) with one who is "a brother" in the family of God (5:11). "Insiders" (if we may use that word accommodatively) are those who are "inside" Christ (wherein is salvation, 2 Tim. 2:10) and "inside" the family of God (who will inherit eternal life, 1 Pet. 1:3-4). "Outsiders" are, therefore, those who are "outside" of Christ (and do not have salvation, Rom. 8:1) and "outside" the family of God (who will not inherit eternal life, 2 Thess. 1:8-9).

So, if you are an "insider," what does God expect of you? He does not expect you to "sit" and do nothing while "inside" His family. He does not expect you to hold the door closed and keep anyone else from coming "inside" His family. He does not expect you to merely "wish" that "outsiders" might find their way "inside" His family. He tells those who are "inside" to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature!" (Mark 16:15). While we must be "in the world" (John 17:11) to reach the world, at the same time we must not be "of the world" (John 17:14-16).

Therefore, Christians must pray for and find an "open...door for the word," that we may "speak" it and live it before those who are lost (Col. 4:3-4). That's why Paul says, "Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time" (4:5). We MUST make the MOST of every opportunity that is afforded to us to bring as many "outsiders" as we can "inside" the family of God! In the Parable of the Great Supper, the master bid his servants, "Go out quickly...and bring in here...Go out...and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled" (Luke 14:21-23). Our Master is bidding us, as His servants, to do that very thing—"Go out...and bring in...that there may be more 'inside' My house!"

Eventually, in eternity, there will be an "outside" (Rev. 22:15) and an inside (22:14). On the day of judgment, the Lord will say to those who have not faithfully followed Him, "Depart...into everlasting fire" (Matt. 25:41), but He will say to those who have faithfully followed Him, "Come...inherit" (25:34). The first question is, "Which will you hear? Will you be outside or inside for all eternity?" The second question is, "Which will you have helped others to hear? Will people you have known (family, friends, neighbors, coworkers, etc.) be outside or inside for all eternity? Will you have done or said anything to influence their eternity?"

These are sobering thoughts and sobering questions. May God help us to truly be "insiders," for true "insiders" want all "outsiders" to come inside—in the church and into heaven!

True "insiders" want all "outsiders" to come inside!

Blindness

Luke, the beloved physician, wrote about Jesus healing people. He mentioned Jesus talking about healing the blind (Luke 4:16-18). Jesus did do this, but it was more than just physical blindness that He healed (Luke 18:35-43). He healed the blindness of ignorance, tradition, prejudice, superstition, and idolatry. Blindness is akin to darkness, which all through God’s word is contrasted to the Bible, Christ, the gospel, and Christians—all of whom are called lights. The Father Himself is called Light (1 John 1:5), and Jesus is referred to as “the light of the world” (John 8:12).

Blindness is throughout all the Bible. Of the Jews, Isaiah said, “We grope along the wall like blind men, We grope like those who have no eyes; We stumble at midday as in the twilight, Among those who are vigorous we are like dead men” (Isa. 59:10). Jesus spoke of the people in His lifetime: “For the heart of this people has become dull, with their ears they scarcely hear, and they have closed their eye otherwise they would see with their eyes, hear with their ears and understand with their heart and return, and I would health them” (Matt. 13:15). Paul said of the Jews in his day, “But their minds were hardened; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed in Christ” (2 Cor. 3:14). Christians may be blind. “For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins” (2 Pet. 1:9). Also, “But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes” (1 John 2:11).

There are some similarities between physical blindness and spiritual blindness: cannot see light, so stumbles; cannot see beauties, so loses part of joys of life; cannot get correct conception of things; depends on others to lead him. There are some ways where they are different: the physically blind know they are blind; the physically blind have almost no chance to recover; the physically blind want to see.

For this reason
God will send upon them a deluding
influence

There are various causes of this kind of blindness. Regarding the original cause, “the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ” (2 Cor. 4:4). Another contributing factor is man’s unwillingness to see. “For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false” (2 Thess. 2:11-13). We need to be careful that we don’t fall blind to the service we need to render to the Lord.

We can get along if we are physically blind. If we are blind spiritually, we are in grave danger of losing what is most precious to us—our souls.

What you want most for your spouse

In the very first letter that we have penned by the apostle Paul, he told the church in Thessalonica, “For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? For you are our glory and joy” (1 Thess. 2:19-20). Think about how much Paul loved these brethren. This was how much one Christian wanted his fellow Christians to go to heaven.

Sometimes it is interesting to read what one Christian said to another in the New Testament, and imagine a Christian husband or wife saying those words to his/her spouse today. How much do you want your spouse to go to heaven? Could you say this? “For what is my hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? For you are my glory and joy.” That ought to be our ultimate and daily goal in our marriages today—our spouse in the presence of Jesus when He returns! What a thought! – DS

Take responsibility

R-E-S-P-O-N-S-I-B-I-L-I-T-Y is a four-letter word today. Well, not really, but it sure seems that way sometimes. Our society is coddling certain segments of people or special interest groups and guarding them from being responsible for anything that they do. So, if some people mess up, they would never assume (or have to assume) responsibility for it. In another way, some parents are raising their children today to be lazy, entitled slackers, who do not know what it is to be a contributing member of society, who takes responsibility for assignments, work, tasks, appointments, etc. So, if they don’t fulfill their roles and expectations set for them, so be it.

Fellow Christian, God created us to be workers (2 Thess. 3:10). He created us to be hard workers (Ecc. 9:10). He created us to be contributing members of our society (Gal. 6:10). He created us to “do” (Luke 6:31) and not to be “lazy” (Matt. 25:26). He created us to be honest in all that we do (Col. 3:9). Brethren, please take responsibility and teach such to others! – DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

- 1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God
"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).
- 2. Repent of your sinful ways
"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).
- 3. Confess your faith in Jesus
"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).
- 4. Be immersed in water
"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).
- 5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service
"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).
