Young People, Difficult Days Are Coming

Solomon, the wisest man of the Old Testament, had so much to say to young people about their lives. A quick search of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes shows that he mentions child, children, son, sons, young and youth over 85 times in these books.

Evidently one of the purposes Solomon wrote these books was to give instruction to his children. He uses the expression "my son" 23 times. He wanted his son to live a life filled with wisdom. Take time to think about his closing words to young people found in Ecclesiastes chapter twelve.

"Remember now your Creator..." These words presuppose that young people would be taught about God when very young. You cannot remember what you have never learned. God's plan is for children to learn about Him from infancy (2 Tim. 3:15).

"Remember now your Creator..." There is an urgency in these words. It is foolish to wait to do right. Hearts are open and tender in our early years, so do it now! It's always right to do right, right now! Failure to do this is so foolish.

"Remember now your Creator..." It is true that He is the Creator of the entire universe, but this concept can be so impersonal and vague. It is imperative that young people realize He made them, individually and personally.

"Remember now your Creator..." He is the Almighty God, the origin of any reality you know. Paul described this in these words, "For in Him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:28). God has shown this so clearly that there is not a single person who cannot know of His majesty and power (Rom. 1:19-20).

"Remember...before the difficult days come..." One cannot be wise and not make preparation for what lies ahead. You cannot wait until those days arrive and then deal with them. It is in our youth that we must prepare.

"Remember...before the difficult days come ..." There is a strong tendency for young people to live only in the present and fail to look to the future. Solomon speaks of the years when trials will come, and you may be unable to cope with them. Life is not always lived on the mountains of carefree happiness. On the other side of those mountains are valleys of trials.

"Remember...before the difficult days come and... when you say, 'I have no pleasure in them.'" Very few young people realize that it is in our youth that we set the course for the rest of our lives. There is one decision that we must teach our young people to make. That decision is "Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the difficult days come and years draw near when you say, 'I have no pleasure in them.'" God help us to seriously think about this!

There is one decision we must teach our youth to make before it is too late.

Seven Things That God Hates

When you learn that someone you dearly love has a strong detestation for something, does that get your attention and cause you to want to be extra mindful and careful in that regard? Of course it does! In fact, in all likelihood, we will even change our own personal attraction or pleasure toward that detested thing. What if the one we so love in this manner is God? How would you respond to things or practices that God detests?

Sprinkled throughout the Bible is mention of things and actions that God hates. When we read those verses, those ought to grab our attention. In fact, in Proverbs 6:16-19, we find a short (yet partial) list of "things the Lord hates." In fact, Solomon describes these as "seven [things that] are an abomination to Him." God identifies some practices that are abhorrent to Him and opposed to His very nature. We should sit up, pay attention and do all in our power to avoid.

God hates a proud look. Truly, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (1 Pet. 5:5), as He pleads with us to do "nothing...through selfish ambition or conceit" (Phil. 2:3-4). Arrogance has no place in following God!

God hates a lying tongue. God calls for us to "put away lying" (Eph. 4:25) and "all deceit" (1 Pet. 2:1) and to "speak truth" (Eph. 4:25) in all things. Lying is a part of that "old man" that we have put off "with his deeds" (Col. 3:9).

God hates hands that shed innocent blood. While the application is broader than this, does it not especially apply to the practice of killing unborn (innocent) babies! In fact, "whoever hates his brother is a murderer" (1 John 3:15).

God hates a heart that devises wicked plans. "Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts" and actions (Matt. 15:19). Thus, we must "keep [our] heart with all diligence" (Prov. 4:23) and focus on that which is good!

God hates feet that are swift in running to evil. You go wherever your feet are pointed. Our God pleads with us to "abstain from every form of evil" (1 Thess. 5:22). Run away from it, not toward it!

God hates a false witness who speaks lies. Whether in a court of law or not, we must never lie to or about another (Ex. 20:16; Prov. 12:22; 13:5; 19:9; Rev. 21:8), for such behavior is of the devil (John 8:44). Rather, the Lord looks for one "who swears to his own hurt" (Psa. 15:4).

God hates one who sows discord among brethren. God calls us "to speak evil of no one" (Tit. 3:2), but to "seek peace and pursue it" (1 Pet. 3:11). The Lord longs for unity among His people; we must not generate strife and conflict.

Do you love God? Do you hate what He hates?

We should sit up, pay attention and do all in our power to avoid.

Josiah Is Really Real!

We knew the whole time. However, archeologists recently found evidence that supports the Bible, again. Excavations are taking place in the old city of David. During one such excavation, a bulla or clay seal was found bearing the name of Nathan-Melech. This 2,600-year-old artifact reads, “(belonging) to Nathan-Melech, Servant of the King.” Archeologists state that due to the rarity of the name, the message on the seal and where it was found, there is little doubt who this belonged to. Nathan-Melech was mentioned in connection with King Josiah’s reforms. “He did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech the official, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire” (2 Kgs. 23:11). This is a significant find because, until now, there has been no archaeological evidence for this king. Finds like these continue to prove what we have seen by faith for hundreds of years.

How should we respond to this kind of information? We read a collection of books and letters that tell about events that took place thousands of years ago. We call it the Holy Bible. It is natural that there might be some questions. Yet, over and over discoveries come out of the buried past that confirm its historical accuracy. This book was written by about 40 men over a period of 1,500 years, and it is still a reliable and accurate source of information about the past. We should be joyous that the word of God that has governed our lives continues to answer the skeptics’ doubts. We should be thankful toward our God who is still proving Himself to be faithful in all things. “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful” (Heb. 10:23).

Will you respond to God’s word like him?

If the world is now acknowledging that Josiah was really real, then there are some other things one might want to consider. If Josiah was real, then his reforms were real. He did purify the temple and the nation of the foreign gods (2 Kgs. 23:1-20). If his reforms were real, then they did find the word of God in the temple that sent him down the path of reform (2 Kgs. 22:8). If the law was found, then they did read it and inquire of the Lord what should be done (2 Kgs. 22:13). If inquiry was made, then a response was truly given (2 Kgs. 22:15-20). God told the people that destruction was coming, and nothing was going to stop it. For Josiah, things were going to be different. “‘Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD... and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I truly have heard you,’ declares the LORD” (2 Kgs. 22:19). If the word of God continues to be proven true, how long will we wait before we respond like Josiah? Be humbled and repentant before the God of all creation.

Jesus did not live above the law!

When Jesus was on this earth, He was God (Matt. 1:23) and He had the power of God (Acts 10:38). Think about that. Then consider how amazing it is that even He submitted Himself to the law under which He lived. In Matthew 8, Jesus did what no one else on earth could ever do—He healed a man instantaneously of leprosy (8:1-3). Then He told him, “Go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them” (8:4). We get so enthralled by the miracle that we don’t notice (or even understand, perhaps) the instruction that Jesus gave the man. While the power of God could 100% heal a man from leprosy without anyone else involved, the law of God stated that the priest must diagnose and pronounce clean, and that an offering must be made (Lev. 13-14).

Jesus would not allow who He was or the power He had to somehow excuse Him from obeying the law of God or from encouraging others to obey it completely. How about you? Do you ever live as if above God’s law or encourage others to disregard it? Think about it. – DS

Walking in Sonlight

In 1899, Henry J. Zelle wrote a hymn about “walking in sunlight,” which he affectionately calls “Heavenly sunlight.” The song metaphorically uses “sunlight” to depict the glorious life of a faithful Christian who is walking with Christ. Truly, it is glorious because it is “Son-light.”

When we walk with Jesus in the “Sonlight,” we have the never-failing promise from Him, “I’ll never forsake thee.” When we walk with Jesus in the “Sonlight,” the shadows and darkness of life cannot conceal Him or move us from walking close to His side. When we walk with Jesus in the “Sonlight,” we gladly press our way to mansions above, which He has prepared for us.

Where are you in your Christian life? Are you walking over the mountains of great joy? Or are you walking through the deep vale of sadness and despair? Wherever you are, let the presence of “heavenly Sonlight” in your life flood your soul. Sing with confidence (emphasize the last three words): “Hallelujah! I am rejoicing, Singing His praises, Jesus is mine!” – DS
