MISSION SUNDAY 2020

January 26

Every dollar given will be used for PBL Mission Work.

May God bless us,
use us & be glorified in us!

By Dan Jenkins

Our God Is a Giver

It is remarkable that so many know the “Golden Text” of the Bible. “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...” It is called the “Golden Text” because many who read John 3:16 see it as summing up the story of the Bible. Our God is a giver. He gave His son, but He has given us so much more.

He gives us our food. Paul, in his sermon at Lystra, reminded the pagans that while God allowed the nations to walk in their own ways, they were still accountable to Him. They could know He existed. “He did not leave himself without witness, in that He did good, gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness” (Acts 14:17). That same witness has been given to us, for did He not tell us to pray about God giving us daily bread?

However, far above all of this is the spiritual food He supplies us. He has given us access to the fountain of the water of life freely (Rev. 21:6). He has given us all things which pertain to life and godliness (2 Pet. 1:3). He has given us the ability to understand the mystery that not even O.T. saints understood (Mark 4:11; 1 John 5:20). He has given us access to heavenly wisdom (Jas. 1:5). He has also given us exceedingly great and precious promises (2 Pet. 1:4). Our God truly is a giver.

“God so loved that He gave...”
He gave His Son, but He has given so much more

He has given us the church and its attendant blessings which come with it. “Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom” (Luke 12:32). That eternal kingdom, planned from before the world began and prophesied by the Old Testament saints, has been given to us. This was more than part of His plan. It was the plan, and it was His pleasure to give it to us!

He has given to those in that kingdom the honor of telling others about His plan of redemption. That honor was not given to saints of old—not to Abraham, Moses, David, Elijah or any of the prophets. It was not given to Gabriel or Michael or any other angel in heaven. Paul described it this way: God has given to us the word of reconciliation and the work of reconciliation. We stand as the only ambassadors Jesus has on this earth saying to the world, “Be reconciled to God” (2 Cor. 5:20).

The list of what God has given to us is seemingly endless. He has given us peace (John 14:27). He has given us grace (Rom. 12:6). He has given us a new name (Isa. 62:2). He has given us the right to become sons of God (John 1:12) and what love is shown in this relationship (1 John 3:1).

Our God is a giver. What is our response? He allows us to fill in the details, but have we not all sung at various times, “Give of your best to the Master”?

Satan Didn’t Make You Do It

Shifting blame is as old as mankind. When God questioned Adam for his disobedience, the man blamed the woman (Gen. 3:11-12). When the Lord questioned Eve, the woman blamed the devil—“The serpent deceived me, and I ate” (3:13). In other words, “The devil made me do it.”

Except, the devil didn’t make Eve do anything that she didn’t want to do. She “saw” the tree, she thought it was “good for food,” she found it “pleasant to the eyes,” and it was “desirable” to her. Thus, “she took of its fruit and ate” (Gen. 3:6). Certainly, the devil “deceived Eve by his craftiness” (2 Cor. 11:3), but the choice was 100% Eve’s! She could not legitimately shift blame to anyone else for what she had done!

Some 4,000 years later, the devil was busy again. Ananias and Sapphira had “sold a possession...kept back part of the proceeds,” and then “brought a certain part” of the proceeds to the apostles but conveyed it as the entire amount (Acts 5:1-4). Greed, pride, love of money and conceit are dangerous foes to a child of God. The apostle Peter said to Ananias, “Why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit?” There it is! It wasn’t Ananias’ fault! It was the devil’s fault! The devil made Ananias do it! Wait a minute—keep reading. Just two sentences later, Peter said, “Why have you conceived this thing in your heart?” Whose idea was this? Whose desire was this? While Satan had deceived this couple into justifying their action, the choice to lie to God was 100% on them! They could not legitimately shift blame to anyone else for what they had “agreed together” to do (5:9)!

They could not legitimately shift blame to anyone else

This is exactly what the Bible teaches regarding the onset of sin in someone’s life. Look carefully at the progression outlined in James 1:14-15. “But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death.” The temptation comes from the devil, no doubt, but the temptation is only “tempting” because of one’s “own desires.” When one is “enticed” by the temptation and yields to “his own desires,” the Bible teaches that “it gives birth to sin.” Ultimately, when “sin” is left to grow and contaminate one’s heart, it “brings forth death” (i.e., separation from God).

Satan cannot “make you do anything” that you do not want to do yourself! So, the Bible teaches us to “resist the devil” (Jas. 4:7). The best way to resist him is to change our “desires” to be “conformed” to the will of God (Rom. 12:2). When I want what God wants, sin will be less appealing and the devil will have less influence over me. But I must take full responsibility for my desires and for my actions.

The Church in Thessalonica: A Great Example

When learning something, new it is always great to have examples. I remember trying to learn algebra. My teacher would go over a few equations on the board to help us get the concepts. About the time I thought I was getting it, she would stop and assign class work. I'd open the book and naturally the examples were nothing like what we saw in the book. Her examples seemed so easy compared to what we actually had to do. While this may be true with most things in life, it is not true about the example of the church in Thessalonica. What they went through in order to be Christians was so much more difficult than what we had to do at the beginning of our faith. Yet, Paul praises them for their example.

In Acts chapter seventeen, Luke gives us the account of the beginning of the church in Thessalonica. As was Paul's practice, he began speaking in the synagogue (Acts 17:1). There were many of the Jews, Greeks and leading women that joined Paul and Silas (Acts 17:4). Jealous of their popularity, the other Jews incited a mob in town and brought one of the members, Jason, before the town authorities (Acts 17:5-9). Paul and Silas had to be let out of the city by basket over the wall (Acts 17:10). With that tumultuous beginning of the church, there are very few among us who can say we experienced something similar at our conversion.

Now, in his letter to the church in Thessalonica, Paul praises them. He mentions three things that he brings to God in prayer on their behalf. He specifically cites their work of faith, labor of love and steadfastness of hope (1 Thess. 1:3). This sounds very similar to Paul's letter to Corinth, "But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love" (1 Cor. 13:13). Even though they were young in the faith, they were still hitting all the high points of what it means to be a Christian. He continues in their praise by saying, "You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with the joy of the Holy Spirit" (1 Thess. 1:6). In all that they strove to do for their Lord, they were faced with opposition, but they pressed on.

Here is a congregation that was a great example.

The perseverance they showed became an example to the church in Macedonia and Achaia: "You became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you... in every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves report about us what kind of a reception we had with you" (1 Thess. 1:7-9). Here is a congregation that was a great example to us. Despite the opposition, they continued in their faith and service to God. Here we sit with little to no opposition, and what is said our work of faith, labor of love and steadfastness of hope? May we ever strive to be imitators of Christ.

He drove the man out of the garden

The story of Adam and Eve sinning against God in Genesis 3 is no doubt the saddest (and most universally devastating) story in all of the Bible. God let the woman (3:16) and the man (3:17-19) know what their physical punishment would entail.

Then the text says that "God sent him out of the garden...So He drove out the man" (3:23-24). I remember as a child being captivated by that verse and wondering what God was driving. I always figured it was a rugged, army green Jeep, and that He put them in the back, drove them out to the edge of the garden and then dropped them off.

It was not until later that I realized that this was the true punishment for their sin. In the grand scheme, the punishment of verses 16-19 was merely temporary. But, being driven from the presence of God and experiencing that separation from Him—that was the real punishment. And it could last forever (Matt. 25:46). If you've been driven from God's presence by your sin, please, please repent and find your way back to Him!

A "glad" heart for what?

When the prodigal son returned home, the Bible says that his father was "glad" when he saw him (Luke 15:32). Imagine those emotions. After Jesus' resurrection, He appeared to His apostles and showed them His wounds, and the Bible says that they were "glad" when they saw him. Imagine those emotions. After we have suffered for the cause of Christ and He returns in "His glory," the Bible says that we will be "glad" when we see Him (1 Pet. 4:13). Imagine those emotions. Each of these has an overflow of rejoicing embedded in the word.

Now, imagine this same word when it is used in Mark 14. "Then Judas Iscariot...went to the chief priests to betray Him to them. And when they heard it, they were glad..." (14:10-11). Can you imagine what kind of depraved heart has an overflow of rejoicing at the prospect of betraying, torturing and crucifying God's Son?

What is it that brings gladness to my heart? "Dear God, please let me never find gladness at crucifying Your Son!" (cf. Heb. 6:4-6; 10:26-29). —DS
