Help Me Find
THE TIME

By Dan Jenkins

Go the Extra Mile

Near the entrance of Gethsemane, He left eight of the apostles and then took Peter, James and John closer to the place where He was to pray. He left this “inner circle” and “...went a little further, and fell on His face, and prayed” (Matt. 26:39, KJV). He went further than others—He always did—and told us to do the same.

In the Sermon on the Mount, He talked about going beyond where others would go. When compelled by a Roman soldier to carry supplies for a mile, Jesus said we should go a greater distance and carry it two (Matt. 5:41). If someone thinks he needs our tunic, Jesus said we should go the greater distance and give him our outer garment as well. He went further, and so should we.

Think of the application this has in every area of our lives. When we see how the world lives with its measure of morality, we should do more. The ungodly do good to those who do good to them, but Christians return blessing for cursing, good for ill treatment and prayers for those who prey on us (Matt. 5:44). He went further, and so should we!

Christian husbands and wives need to go further in the way they treat their mates than anyone else on this earth. Agape love does not wait until a spouse treats them with kindness. Christians go further, and they go further first! Christian parents go further with how they deal with their children than those in the world. Our children’s friends should see how we treat our children and be jealous! Christian children go further in honoring their parents than their friends at school do to their parents. Remember that Jesus went further and so should we!

Christians go further in the workplace than their fellow workers. The Bible uses the term “eyeservice” to describe those who work only when the eyes of their employers see them. Christians do not give eyeservice—they go further (Eph. 6:6). They also work just as diligently for good bosses as they do for unkind ones (1 Pet. 2:18). Our Lord went further, and so should we.

Now, take this principle and make it part of your life and part of the life in your family. Going further than others expect will change you and will brighten the light you shine. It will also shock those around you. They likely have never met someone who goes the extra mile. Perhaps they will even see you as part of a church that practices this lifestyle and be led to become part of this great family.

Why not take a moment right now and think of what you did yesterday or today where you could have done more? Do not ever forget. He went further and so should we!

The world has likely never met someone who always goes the second mile.

“Must” Ain’t Optional!

To state that a person “must” do something is a very strong declaration, emphasizing that one is “obliged” or “required” to carry out a certain act. In the Greek New Testament, the word for “must” is the short but powerful word dei. It is found in 104 verses and means, “it is necessary.” Almost half of the uses are found in the gospel accounts, where Jesus made proclamations like, “The Son of Man must suffer many things” (Mark 8:31), “must...be lifted up” on the cross (John 3:14), and “must...the third day rise again” (Luke 24:7). In order to fulfill the will of God, these were absolute necessities. How is that word used in the New Testament regarding absolute necessities of individuals today?

The word “must” is used regarding our worship. “God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth” (John 4:24). In order to worship God acceptably, it is an absolute necessity that one worship according to His standards and requirements!

The word “must” is used regarding the qualifications of elders. “A bishop then must be blameless...” (1 Tim. 3:2; see also Titus 1:7). In order for a Christian man to be qualified to serve as an elder, it is an absolute necessity that he meet the standards and requirements set out by God!

In order to fulfill the will of God, these were absolute necessities.

The word “must” is used regarding our submission to the will of God. The apostles said, “We must obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:29). In order for our lives to be acceptable in the sight of God, it is an absolute necessity that we must choose to obey Him (i.e., His standards and requirements)!

The word “must” is used regarding our salvation from sin. The Philippian jailer asked the all-important question, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” (Acts 16:30). Saul of Tarsus and Cornelius were also interested in that question, for they were told that certain men would tell them “what you must do” (Acts 9:6; 10:6). So, what “must” a person do to be saved? It is an absolute necessity that one “must believe that [God] is...” (Heb. 11:6). Without such faith, “it is impossible to please God.” Likewise, it is an absolute necessity that one “must be born again” (John 3:7), “born of water and the Spirit” (3:5)—an obvious description of baptism (cf. Eph. 5:26; Tit. 3:5; 1 Cor. 12:13). (This is the very thing that Saul and Cornelius were told they must do in Acts 22:16 and Acts 10:48.) Without baptism, one “cannot enter the kingdom of God” (John 3:5). In order to be saved from our sins, it is an absolute necessity that we follow the standards and requirements of God, including both faith and baptism (Mark 16:16).

The word “must” is used regarding our appearance before Christ in judgment (2 Cor. 5:10). Are you ready?

Eulogy of The Living God

You have probably heard or read one. A eulogy is reserved for the dead to speak of their deeds in life. Those admirable traits and praiseworthy moments, if there are any, help us to remember the person for who they were. Some have said that life might be a little sweeter if we daily said the things that we typically reserve for funerals.

The apostle Paul thought so. In Ephesians 1:3-10, Paul wrote a eulogy to God. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 1:3a). The word "blessed" (makarioi), which means "happy," was used in the beatitudes (Matt. 5:3-11), but it is not the word used in Ephesians 1:3. A different word is used, eulogeo, a word from which we get our English word "eulogy," which means to speak well of or to celebrate with praises. Paul wishes to eulogize or to speak well of God. This is something that we read a lot in the books of poetry (Psa. 146:1-10).

Paul begins his eulogy to the living God praising Him for the blessings that He has shown us (Eph. 1:3-4). He speaks of all the spiritual blessings we have in Christ, mentioning that we were blessed even before the foundation of the world (Psa. 90:1-2; Deut. 33:27). We are reminded to praise God because He adopted us (Eph. 1:5). This is a repeating theme for Paul

(Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:5). We are grateful to God that He grafted us into a promise that we had no part in through natural birth but through spiritual birth. We should praise God because He extends grace (Eph. 1:6). We were bestowed this grace through the Beloved, speaking of Christ, once again highlighting the Son's part in the eulogy. We should praise God because He redeems and forgives (Eph. 1:7-8a). This again is attributed to His grace that was "lavished on us" (1:8a). From this word we get our word "issue," like the military issuing gear to a soldier. With the prefix on this word it latterly reads "super-issued." We have been given abundant grace to our redemption and forgiveness. How can we keep from praising Him? We should praise God because He has made known His will and all that was accomplished in Christ (1:8a-10). He didn't have to, but He laid everything out and essentially says, "This is what I have done for you." We should praise Him because we have received an inheritance (Eph. 1:11-12). We're not just His children but children with an inheritance. Finally, we should praise Him because He sent the Holy Spirit (Eph. 1:13-14). That act was done as a pledge and "with a view to the redemption of God's own possession." The work of the Holy Spirit in the early church was for our redemption.

It is clear that we are blessed beyond our own understanding. One day we will be able to eulogize Him face to face. Until then, let's keep these in our hearts and minds.

It is clear that we are blessed beyond our own understanding.

Tough decisions

Life is full of decisions. Most of them (the vast majority of them) are small and easy decisions, but some decisions are difficult and life-changing. Is there a way to make tough decisions a little less tough?

While many factors go into making a decision, the big decisions of life do not have to be made alone! The wise man said that "with many counselors [plans] succeed" (Prov. 15:22), and "in the multitude of counselors there is safety" (11:14; 24:6). But we need to be sure that we are surrounding ourselves with wise, GODLY counsel (not just telling us what we want to hear)!

The best thing we can (and MUST) do is pray. Over a period of days and weeks, talk intimately (and progressively) with your Father: "God, I need your help! Please help me with this decision! God, I think this is what I'm going to do. Please put a roadblock in the way somehow if I shouldn't do this." "Let your requests be made known to God" (Phil. 4:6). Are you? – DS

Wanting the best for those who are the worst

God cared for you and wanted the best for you even when you were "without strength" and "ungodly" (Rom. 5:6), and when you were a "sinner" (5:8), and when you were an "enemy" (5:10). God cared for you and wanted the best for you even when you "despised and rejected" Him (Isa. 53:3), and when you "turned" from Him (53:6), and when you caused Him "grief," "wounds" and even death (53:3, 5, 7-8).

What did we do to deserve such gracious treatment? Not a thing! In fact, we deserved just the opposite! But our benevolent God loved us anyway and gave His very best to us and for us.

In light of His loving care, how do we treat others who do not show us the kindness and respect that we think they should? Do we give them "what they deserve"? Or do we care for them and graciously want the best for them, as our Father does for us? "If God so loved us, we also ought to love one another" (1 John 4:11)! – DS
