The Folly of Total Acceptance of All Ideas Equally

The watchword in our society that permeates so many aspects of life is acceptance. The values of any single member of society is equal to the values of any other single individual. There is no single answer to any question that is actually right, so every person defines “truth” based on their own experiences.

As an illustration of this, look at our world’s definition of marriage and sexual activities. For so many, there is no difference in living together without marriage and living together inside a marriage. Comments like, “We have been together for fifteen years, but just got married two years ago” illustrate this so well. Our society, based on the idea of total acceptance, forbids anyone to make any judgment about these situations.

You see the same when terms like “my significant other” or “my partner” are given the same values as those who say, “my husband” or “my wife.” The idea of total acceptance censors those who say there is a difference between any of these words.

The end result is the same. Anyone who accepts anything never can fully embrace anything! Since all ideas are equal in value, there is no way total acceptance of everything could ever allow anyone to fully accept anything. There is nothing absolutely true. We have no compass to guide us!

Now take this principle of accepting everything into the church and look at the results. Is worship totally subjective and consequently any meaningful way any one person chooses to worship has the same value as the way any other chooses to worship? How would such impact the Lord’s supper? There is no boundary as to what elements are found in the Lord Supper. There is no boundary as to when one eats the Lord’s Supper. There is no boundary as to whether one ever has the Lord’s Supper. One is told, “Judge not that you be not judged,” and such misuse of scripture results in a complete inability to find truth that is absolute. We have no compass to guide us. Never forget that anyone who accepts everything can never embrace anything. The Lord’s Supper can never have structure of any form if one accepts everything.

Take this view of tolerance and the acceptance of all ideas being equal and look at how it changes views toward sin. Look at how it changes the understanding of salvation and our view of someday standing before the Lord to be judged. There is truth. There is absolute truth. There is eternal truth. Jesus is absolutely the Messiah. He truly died and literally rose on the third day. He is coming again, and each person will be judged by the eternal truth. You can embrace this!

Tragically, anyone who accepts everything can never embrace anything.

Learning Obedience: The Challenging, Yet Essential Part

In last week’s article, we studied some areas where our need for obedience is quite obvious (if we are to be saved and be granted an entrance into heaven), and yet still demanding—i.e., obedience to God, to Christ and to His Word. Obeying that which is divine is expected. But we must also fully understand and accept that He who is divine has called upon us to obey certain ones on this earth, and our decision to obey (or not obey) these ones reflects our decision to obey (or not obey) our God.

God calls upon us to obey our parents. “Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord” (Col. 3:20). The only time children could choose to not obey their parents is if such obedience would cause them to disobey God (Acts 5:29). Obeying parents is at the same time obeying God.

God calls upon us to obey our employers. This might be surprising to some, but the instructions to servants toward their masters is applicable today to employees toward their employers. “Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God...as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord” (Col. 3:22+Eph. 6:6). The only time an employee could choose to not obey his employer is if such obedience would cause him to disobey God (Acts 5:29). Obeying employers is at the same time obeying God.

God calls upon us to obey our civil rulers. This may make some uncomfortable and cause some to even seek loopholes, but consider that these instructions were written while Roman tyrants, such as Nero, were ruling. “Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey...subject to the governing authorities...subject for the Lord’s sake to every human institution” (Tit. 3:1+Rom. 13:1+1 Pet. 2:13). The only time a citizen could choose to not obey civil rulers is if such obedience would cause him to disobey God (Acts 5:29). Obeying civil rulers is at the same time obeying God.

God calls upon us to obey our elders in the church. Some have tried to diminish this responsibility somehow and suggest it doesn’t apply to them, but Scripture is very clear. “Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account” (Heb. 13:17). The only time a Christian could choose to not obey the elders is if such obedience would cause him to disobey God (Acts 5:29). Obeying our elders in the church is at the same time obeying God.

God has commanded our obedience. To choose to not obey these ones would be to choose to not obey God.

Our decision to obey (or not) reflects our decision to obey (or not) our God

Four Roads: The Road To Calvary

All the gospels speak of this road (Matt. 27; Mark 15; Luke 23; John 19). This road is central to our faith and reason for believing. If He had not died, just the way He died, He would not have been the Christ. This road was a common road to a common death. On that day it was used by an uncommon man for an uncommon purpose with uncommon love (John 15:13).

We can only imagine what it would've been like to be there on that day. Let alone to actually have suffered what Jesus suffered. Even in our heightened imaginations we couldn't do it service. The magnitude of the injustice. His magnificent innocence and our colossal weight of sin. I wonder if He knew the voices from the crowd, those that would one day praise Him but were now slandering Him? I wonder how He did it? There was nothing miraculous about His endurance and suffrage. He received the full brunt of that trauma without any heavenly intervention. When it became obvious that He wasn't going to make it to the place called Golgotha, Simon of Cyrene was pressed into service to bear the cross (Matt. 27:32). This was the only respite given Him—not out of any kindness but just cruel functionality. Did He scream when they drove the nails through Him? Shock would've dulled the pain for a moment, but it would come rushing back. Every breath was agony. Yet, He continued to teach. "Woman, behold thy son." "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." "This day you shall be with Me in Paradise." "I thirst." "It is finished." "Father, into thy hands I commend My spirit."

Everything about that day was a lesson for us. We must fix "our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart" (Heb. 12:2-3). It teaches us how to suffer with grace. It teaches us how to love selflessly (Eph. 5:25). If you started down this road thinking that there would be no difficulties, you were misinformed. "If anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name" (1 Pet. 4:16). We must be willing to travel down this road. The servant is not above the Master.

Four roads to travel down. The road of learning about Jesus. The road of obedience to Christ. The road of compassionate service. Finally, the road of self-sacrifice. When we can get to the point where we can say, "It is no longer I who lives, but Christ" and understand it, then we are close (Gal.2:20).

"Dry clean only"

It's right there on the tag. It's the manufacturer's instructions for properly cleaning. It might say, "Dry clean only." "Wash in warm water." "Wash in cold water with like colors." "Tumble dry on medium heat." The one who created the garment knows the best way to clean the garment.

From the beginning, the Creator has "formed... wonderfully made...[and] intricately woven" His special creation—both their physical design and their spiritual design in His image (Psa. 139:13-15; Gen. 1:26). From the beginning, the Creator knew that His special creation would stain their souls with the filth of sin, so He planned "before the foundation of the world" to send His Son and provide the cleansing power of His "precious blood" to remove sin (1 Pet. 1:17-21).

The "tag" that each of His creatures bears reads the same: "Wash in the blood of Jesus only." This is done when one is "baptized into His death" (Rom. 6:3-5), and then, as a child of God, "walks" faithfully with the Lord, confessing his sins (1 John 1:7, 9). Clean your soul His way! Clean your soul today!

Honoring widows in deed

The Bible gives great emphasis to widows and to the special place they have in the heart of God. In the Old Testament, there were laws instructing to "not afflict any widow" (Ex. 22:22; cf. Zech. 7:10) and to make special provisions to see that they were not neglected (Deut. 14:29; 24:20-21; 26:13).

In the New Testament, one of the first crises that the church faced was when widows were being "neglected" (Acts 6:1-7). Thus, instructions were given for the congregation to take special care of those who are "widows indeed" (1 Tim. 5:3-16), but to not limit care and attention to only those. "Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world" (Jas. 1:27).

God gave all of these instructions to His people regarding widows because He truly has a heart for them. The Lord is "a defender of widows" (Psa. 68:5), "relieves the...widow" (Psa. 146:9) and "administers justice for...the widow" (Deut. 10:18). So, the question is, "Do you?" There are widows all around us in the church? Do you help and honor them in deed? – DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).

2. Repent of your sinful ways

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).

3. Confess your faith in Jesus

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).

4. Be immersed in water

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).

5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service

"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).
