There Is Evil in Our Land

If America would understand the importance of studying the Old Testament, our world would drastically change and head in a new direction. Why do we have that old covenant when we live under the new one? Listen to what God says. "For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope" (Rom. 15:4). We are a sick nation because we have not paid attention to those things written before.

There is evil in our land as there was evil in the land of Noah. When godly people became intertwined with the ungodly, our holy God responded. "Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the Lord was sorry He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart" (Gen. 6:5-6). At one time, we at least said that we wanted to be "one nation under God," but now we have become a nation which longs to be "one nation out from under God." How much longer will it be before God is sorry that He ever made America?

What things were written before? Read those verses from Genesis again and understand they were for our learning!

How do these words from Micah describe our land? "Woe to those who devise iniquity, and work out evil on their beds! At morning light they practice it" (Micah 2:1). They cunningly devise their plans and then carry them out as soon as the morning light comes. How good are they at it? "They do evil ... successfully with both hands" (Micah 7:3). We are truly a land filled with ambidextrous people!

We are a sick nation because we are ignorant of the Old Testament stories

Once a nation starts down the road of evil it becomes more and more corrupt. Paul described it this way, "But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived" (2 Tim. 3:13). Jeremiah's words are so graphic: "And like their bow they have bent their tongues for lies. For they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know Me" (Jer. 9:3).

We hear that the economy is booming, and while that may be true, there is something far more important. Our land has become a place where "evil is booming." Will we never learn? Is there no hope? The hope for us is found in the opening words of this article. Those things written before were written for our learning!

How do we respond to all of this evil? What values must we place in our homes? It's very simple. We must not follow the multitude to do evil (Ex. 23:2). We must not be overcome with evil but overcome evil with good (Rom. 12:21).

The Most Rewarding Part of Being a Christian

As you think about the great joys and benefits of being a child of God, what would you say is the most rewarding part of serving the Lord? One could talk about the joy of having all personal sins forgiven, or the blessings associated with the church and having brothers and sisters in Christ, or the wonderful privilege of worshiping the Almighty Creator. All of these are indeed grand rewards of being a Christian.

But there is something that we might consider to be more rewarding than anything else. You may not think of it as "the most rewarding," but why not? For the Christian, there is nothing better than teaching someone the gospel! It truly is "the most rewarding part of being a Christian." Here's why.

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I am fulfilling my purpose as a Christian. My purpose is to give "glory" to God (Isa. 43:7), to make known "the manifold wisdom of God" (Eph. 3:10) and to "preach" Christ (Col. 1:27-29). Fulfilling my God-given purpose is highly rewarding.

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I am obeying the Lord. I have been commanded by my Lord to "preach the gospel" (Mark 16:15), to "teach" what He has commanded (Matt. 28:20) and to "commit" the truth to others (2 Tim. 2:2). Obeying my Lord is highly rewarding.

You may not think of it as "the most rewarding," but why not?

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I get to manifest my love for my Savior. Jesus said, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word" (John 14:23; cf. 14:15, 21; 1 John 5:3). He "loved me and gave Himself for me" (Gal. 2:20). Manifesting my love for Him, by giving myself to teaching about Him, is highly rewarding.

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I get to talk about the greatest event (John 3:16), that involved the greatest friend (John 15:13-14), who offers the greatest gift (Eph. 2:8) and promises the greatest hope (Tit. 1:2). The word "gospel" means "good news," and that's what I get to tell others. Talking about Jesus is highly rewarding.

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I get to beat the devil back with the Lord's help. When I teach the gospel, I am imparting "the power of God unto salvation" (Rom. 1:16), which is a crushing blow to the devil and his efforts (cf. Gen. 3:15). Defeating the devil is highly rewarding.

Teaching someone the gospel is rewarding because I get to give a soul an opportunity to be saved. When I can help someone to obey the gospel, have every damning sin completely forgiven and enter into a holy relationship with God (Heb. 10:19-22), there is nothing better than that! Helping a lost soul to be saved is highly rewarding.

Conditions in the Bible

There are those who would preach and praise God for His boundless love and grace. For both of those I am eternally thankful. However, some use words like reckless and unconditional to describe these attributes of God. These words go beyond the scope of what the Bible says. God is certainly not reckless with anything He does, and there are conditions in the Bible. Here are a few for your consideration.

“John answered and said, ‘A man can receive nothing unless it has been given him from heaven’” (John 3:27). John was speaking about revelation and knowledge of the Christ. We understand that to be true by seeking heavenly truths in God’s word (2 Pet. 1:3; 2 John 9; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Jas. 1:17).

“And he said, ‘Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?’ And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him” (Acts 8:31). The Ethiopian needed one to explain the prophecy more clearly to him. We understand that unless we understand clearly what God expects of us, we will be in the same position (John 6:45; Matt. 28:19; Jer. 10:23; Rom. 10:14-15).

“Also if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not win the prize unless he competes according to the rules” (2 Tim. 2:5). This is a basic principal and is applicable in our obedience to God as well (John 3:5; Matt. 18:3; Luke 13:3, 5; John 15:10; Rev. 2:5).

“So Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves’” (John 6:53). There is great sacrifice required to serve the Lord (Rom. 12:1; Gal. 2:20).

“For I say to you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 5:20). We know that our righteousness cannot be simply an outward show (Phil. 1:27; 2 Pet. 3:11; Eph. 4:1).

“Unless the LORD builds the house, They labor in vain who build it; Unless the LORD guards the city, The watchman keeps awake in vain” (Psa. 127:1). Just as Christ said He would build His church so are we built up as a spiritual house with our foundation in God (Col. 2:7; 1 Pet. 2:5; Heb. 3:4).

These are some clear examples of conditions in the Bible. If God’s love and grace were truly recklessly unconditional, then it wouldn’t matter what I did. There are no conditions. Clear reason and a reading of the Scriptures like these and many others teach that there are conditions. “If the LORD had not been my help, My soul would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence” (Psa. 94:17). “I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish” (Luke 13:5).

“I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.”

Full-time or part-time?

When someone goes looking for a job, they understand the difference (and so does the employer) between a full-time job and a part-time job. The difference not only involves the hours that are spent working, but it also has to do with the energies, the dedication, the long-term commitment and the heart that goes into the work.

The same applies to other parts of one’s life. Some people are full-time football fans. Some people are full-time fishermen or full-time golfers. These folks have full-time jobs, but their minds and energies are focused just as much (if not more) toward these personal endeavors.

What about being Christian? Are you a full-time Christian or a part-time Christian? Is it one of those things that you do “when you have time”? Is it limited to those “convenient times”? When Jesus returns, will He identify you as a career man, a football fan, a golfer, a political expert, or as a readily identifiable, full-time Christian? Where is your mind and energy focused? – DS

You’re contagious!

Have you ever contracted some kind of sickness from being around someone at work or at school or at church or just out in public somewhere? It happens. And sometimes we don’t even know “where we got it.” That’s because many people are contagious when they’re sick.

Let’s look at this another way. Have you ever walked away from an encounter with someone (at work, at school, at church, out in public somewhere, etc.) with a smile on your face, with a happy spirit and feeling better than you did before that encounter? It happens. That’s because many people are contagious with their positive attitude, gracious spirit and acts of kindness.

Here’s the deal. You’re contagious, no matter what. When people “encounter” you, they will be affected (or, perhaps we should say, “infected”) by your demeanor, your behavior, your words, your reactions, etc. So, the question is, when people encounter you today, what will they contract from you? Will they be “infected” with Jesus-like symptoms or devil-like symptoms? – DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).

2. Repent of your sinful ways

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).

3. Confess your faith in Jesus

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).

4. Be immersed in water

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).

5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service

"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).
