Looking at the Cross

The way Christians look at the cross of Jesus is vastly different from the way the ungodly look at it. Paul sums it all up in these words, "It pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. For the Jews request a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom; but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness" (1 Cor. 1:21-23). This is so far removed from the way saints see the cross.

Pagans look at the cross. Every god of every pagan was powerful—more powerful than any man. The very concept of deity being killed by mortals was beyond comprehension. As the early church brought the message of the cross to the entire world, it was foolishness.

Jews look at the cross. They were expecting the coming of the Messiah. Those who understood could see that God had promised to someday send a prophet, priest and king to live among them. With their view of the Messiah, the cross became a stumbling block. One does not have to submit to a king who is so helpless or listen to a mortal who claims to be a prophet. Jesus may have said, "You have heard that it was said, but I say to you..." but who cares what Jesus said, for he is just a man claiming to be someone great. One cannot put their trust in a priest like Jesus to save them. What was said at the cross sums it up: "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God" (Luke 23:35).

Christians look at the cross. Read the rest of the words of Paul to the Corinthians. "We preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God." It is truly amazing how differently a pagan, a Jew and a Christian would hear the same sermon. What is the right view? Look at the cross through the eyes of God.

What do you see when looking at the cross through the eyes of God?

Built within God's eternal plan is a weekly communion with Jesus at His table. As you remember Him every week, make sure you truly see who He is. Remember His body and His blood. As you remember Him every week, look at yourself—let a man examine himself. As you remember Him every week, see the future—proclaim His death until He comes.

God has no other message for mankind. The Jews asked for a sign and the only sign given was the cross. The Greeks sought wisdom, but the only wisdom God had for them was Christ crucified. We must never forget the cross and what happened there. A failure to look at the cross, to remember what happened for us, will result in us being "barren and unfruitful and blind" (2 Pet. 1:8-9). See the cross like God sees it!

Marriage Is No Joke

In our culture today, there is an increasing disrespect and disdain for marriage and for God's perfect plan for it. Some today view marriage as optional, yeah, even old-fashioned. Is marriage one of those things that we should let go—in the same way that we have let go of bell bottom pants, black and white television, and Pluto as a planet? Let's consider some Bible truths.

First, God created man in the beginning. On the sixth day, God made mankind (Gen. 1:26-27). Without God, man would have no existence at all! So, does it not make sense that TO GOD—i.e., to the revelation He has given to us—we must go for all knowledge about life and existence on this earth?

Second, God created male and female in the beginning. When God created the male, He determined to create a close companion for him, for it was "not good that man should be alone" (Gen. 2:18). The God who created the male then created the female to complete the male, as a "helper" who was "suitable for" (or corresponding to) the man. Thus, there is something unique to the male/female relationship that can only be achieved therein.

Third, God created marriage for man and woman. Only a male/female couple may enjoy marriage together. God said that "a man (i.e., a male) shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife (i.e., a female)" (Gen. 2:24). God created marriage and God created sex (between a male and female), and He inseparably joined marriage and the enjoyment of the sexual relationship (Heb. 13:4). Only a husband and his wife may acceptably engage in any and all sexual activity. God created marriage for the purpose of procreation and population the earth (Gen. 1:28). Only a husband and his wife, once married to each other, are intended to have children.

God created marriage to provide completion to the man and the woman (Gen. 2:18, 23), and to help man to have a vivid illustration of the beautiful relationship that exists between Christ and His bride, the church (Eph. 5:22-33).

Is marriage out-of-date and a thing of the past?

Let's go back and ask and answer this question: "Is marriage out-of-date and a thing of the past?" Not in the least! 4,000 years after God created marriage, Jesus Himself (God in the flesh, Matt. 1:23; John 1:1-3) pointed back to God's creation of male and female and the marriage relationship "in the beginning" as the firm and unalterable foundation for understanding God's design for mankind (Matt. 19:3-9). If nothing had changed in the first 4,000 years of man's existence, why would we think that it would be any different after another 2,000 years?

Marriage is no joke! God designed it! Let's respect it!

The Pattern of the Glorious Church

It is always helpful to have an example or pattern to follow when making something. Thankfully, God did not leave us up to our own devices and wisdom when creating the church. The New Testament is full of examples and commands for us to follow. We “serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things” (Heb. 8:5). We have a pattern in those that have lived faithfully before us (1 Tim. 1:16). If Christ intends to present to Himself a glorious church, then the question should be asked, “What makes it glorious?” “That He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless” (Eph. 5:26-27). The “Jerusalem church” was a glorious church and worthy of our consideration. We all share the same goal: That is, to be the church that God wants us to be!

There are several attributes of the Jerusalem church that should be named among us. The church was a learning church. “They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles’ teaching” (Acts 2:42). It was a church that fellowshiped (Acts 2:42). It was a church that continued in prayer (Acts 2:42). They were in a sense of awe over how God was working among them (Acts 2:43). It was an active church (Acts

2:43). It was a sharing church (Acts 2:44-45). It was a unified church (Acts 2:46). It was a worshipping church (Acts 2:46). It was a happy church (Acts 2:46). It was a church admired by all (Acts 2:47). It was a growing church (Acts 2:47). It was a church comprised of only Christians. “They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles. And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common; and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need. Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved” (Acts 2:42-47).

With this and other examples in place it is clear what is expected of us.

With this and other examples in place, it is clear what is expected of us. If we are to be the church that glorifies God and the One who purchased it, then we should be doing our best to adhere to that pattern. God in Christ has done everything to make His church glorious. We need to do our part in keeping the church as He intended.

Is there noise in your songs?

This illustration may fall flat with the younger generation. Do you remember the analog radios and how you would turn the knob ever so slowly to dial in your station just right? Do you remember as you drove further from the signal how you might start to hear some other station playing completely different music but was mixed in with the song from your home station? Do you remember how frustrating that was and how irritating it was trying to tune out the static?

More than 2,700 years ago, God told His people, “Take away from Me the noise of your songs” (Amos 5:23). Why was God referring to Israel’s songs of worship as “noise”? While Israel was singing the right words in their songs, their lives (and hearts) had gone in a different direction. God was hearing their words, but their lives and hearts were creating static, for He could hear that their hearts did not match their words. Thus, what they were offering Him was “noise.”

Do you ever wonder how God hears our/your singing? Is there static/noise in our singing, when God hears our hearts going in a different direction than our words? Is it time for us to dial it

No night there!

The first time you read the word “night” in the Bible is on Day One of Creation. God said, “Let there be light” (Gen. 1:3), and “God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night” (1:5). When it wasn’t day (i.e., light), it was night (i.e., dark). From the beginning of time, man has always known of the dark of night. Man has experienced the sadness, the weeping, the fear, the pain, the uncertainty of the night. Some nights are “darker” than others.

Fast forward (quickly!) to the last time you read the word “night” in the Bible. In describing the wonders of heaven, God said, “There shall be no night there...for the Lord God gives them light” (Rev. 22:5). Heaven will be one eternal “day”! There will be no night, no dusk, no hint of darkness at all! There will be no wrapping up today’s activities or “see you tomorrow”! The overwhelming glory of the reward of heaven will never slow, never dim, never pass, never end!

Everything negative that you associate with “night” here will not enter the gates of eternal day! – DS

PRAYING FOR YOUR CHILDREN

- From Head to Toe -

1. Pray for Their Mind

Pray that your children would earnestly seek wisdom and understanding, that they would value knowledge and discernment, and that their thoughts would stay centered on the truth of God's Word (Proverbs 2:1, 6; 3:21; James 1:5; Psalm 119:97).

2. Pray for Their Eyes

Ask God to guard your children's eyes and protect their innocence. Pray that they would focus their attention on doing what is right (Romans 16:19; Proverbs 4:25).

3. Pray for Their Ears

Pray that your children would be quick to hear and that they would incline their ears to listen to instruction (James 1:19; Isaiah 55:3; Proverbs 8:32, 34).

4. Pray for Their Mouth

Ask God to keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking lies. Pray that all their words would be pleasing to Him and edifying to others (Psalm 34:13; 19:14).

5. Pray for Their Heart

Ask God to give your children a happy, cheerful heart. Pray that they'd come to faith early and would trust easily and completely in Him (Proverbs 15:13; Psalm 28:7).

6. Pray for Their Hands

Pray that they would be diligent in their work and that their hands would not be idle, but that God would bless, confirm and establish the work of their hands (Ecclesiastes 9:10; 11:6; Proverbs 10:4-5).

7. Pray for Their Legs

Pray that your children would not walk in step with the wicked nor stand in the way of sinners, but that they'd find wise and godly companions along life's journey (Psalm 1:1).

8. Pray for Their Feet

Ask God to direct their steps, to help them stand fast, and to protect them from stumbling (Psalm 17:5; 37:23-24; 121:3; 119:133).
