God Will Provide for His Widows

Widows are so important to God. He saw and met the needs of Ruth, the Moabite. He sent Elijah to care for the Gentile widow in Zarephath during the 42-month famine, even raising her son from the dead (1 Kings 17). God used wealthy Job to bring joy to widows who wept and caused their hearts to sing (Job 29:13).

In the New Testament, Jesus honored and magnified the two mites of the widow who gave them to God (Mark 12; Luke 21). He raised the son of the destitute widow from the dead in Nain (Luke 12). God promptly provided for the neglected Grecian widows in Jerusalem by appointing deacons to care for them (Acts 6). Peter brought joy to those widows who wept, while gathered over the death of Dorcas, by raising her from the dead (Acts 9:39-41).

There is no doubt that God sees the needs of widows, the most vulnerable individuals in society, and cares for them. Read these following Old Testament verses that show the special place they have in His heart.

“You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child” (Ex. 22:22). “He administers justice for the fatherless and the widows” (Deut. 10:18). The Jewish tithe, given every third year, was given to support the Levites and widows (Deut.

14:29; 26:12-13). The great sharing of food during the annual Feast of Tabernacles and Feast of Pentecost specifically included widows (Deut. 6:11-14). “You shall not pervert justice due the stranger or the fatherless, nor take a widow’s garment as pledge” (Deut. 24:17). Jews were strictly forbidden from harvesting all their olives, grapes and wheat, for it was left behind to provide for widows (Deut. 24:19-21). “Cursed is the one who perverts the justice due the stranger, the fatherless, and widows” (Deut. 27:19). God is the defender of widows and watches over widows (Psa. 94:6; 146:9). “Defend the fatherless, plead for the widow (Isa. 1:17). “Do no wrong...to widows” (Jer. 22:3). “Let your widows trust in Me” (Jer. 49:11). “Do not oppress the widow” (Zech. 7:10).

We must never forget that our God cares for widows and uses us to do it!

There is not enough space to discuss all the New Testament verses in detail, but take time to read them (Matt. 23:14; 1 Tim. 5:9-16). Do more than just read them, consider how they show His care for widows.

Perhaps no verse shows God’s concern for widows better than James 1:27. God describes pure religion not in terms of being doctrinally perfect nor in just externally keeping His commandments. “Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.” Let us never forget our God cares for widows and uses us to do it!

Why Bible Class?

Not all churches of Christ have Bible classes on Sundays and Wednesdays. Of course, there is not a verse that requires to have such classes and it does not violate any New Testament commands or principles, so it is not sinful if a church has them or if a church does not have them. This is one of those areas of judgment (in the realm of expediency) where elders choose what they believe is best for their congregation.

Of course, everyone has their own opinions. Some think the church has Bible classes because, “That is just tradition—it’s what they’ve always done.” There may be some truth to it being a tradition, but does that make it wrong or not worth my time? Others may think, “That’s just another way that the elders are trying to control things and force us to come, when there’s no command for us to do it.” Perhaps it would be good, in response to such thoughts, to remember that elders have their God-given responsibility to shepherd the flock (Acts 20:28; 1 Pet. 5:2; 1 Tim. 3:5), feed the flock (John 21:15-17), and they will one day give an account for the souls placed in their care (Heb. 13:17). Therefore, we should do more “to esteem them very highly in love for their work’s sake” (1 Thess. 5:12-13).

Why should we make it a priority to attend and participate each week?

So, when elders plan Bible classes for the members and for the children, why should we make it a priority to attend and participate each week?

1. To build my faith (Rom. 10:17).
2. To study my favorite book (2 Tim. 2:15).
3. To get out “of the world” for a while (John 17:14).
4. To learn something new (Rom. 15:4).
5. To learn something old (2 Pet. 3:1-2).
6. To show my love for God’s Word (Psa. 19:7-11).
7. To be with my favorite people (Acts 2:42-46).
8. To encourage my brethren (1 Thess. 5:11).
9. To be encouraged by my brethren (Heb. 10:24).
10. To encourage the teacher who has studied and made preparations for the class (Acts 17:11).
11. To be where the Lord would love to see me (Jas. 4:8).
12. To be where Satan does not want me (Jas. 4:7).

I am confident that you could come up with more than just a dozen good reasons to be in Bible class each week. What would you add to this list? I am thankful that our elders are concerned about our souls and our spiritual growth. May we take advantage of every opportunity to study and grow!

God, the Righteous Judge

There are many of us who have an affinity for TV lawyer shows. Guys like Perry Mason, Ben Matlock, and Jack McCoy made us feel like we were in the room with them as they pressed the witnesses and got to the truth of the matter. Sometimes even getting confessions from the guilty on the stand. In the book of Micah, the reader is invited into the court room as God brings a charge against Judah.

“Hear now what the Lord is saying” (Mic. 6:1). God begins by calling his witnesses to the stand (6:1-2). In this case, He calls the mountains, hills, foundations of the earth. God had told them before they went into the Promised Land that “heaven and earth” witnessed against them as He told them what would happen if they provoked Him to anger (Deut. 4:26). Then, taking the place of the plaintiff, God asks the question, “What have I done to you?” (Mic. 6:3). He then proceeds to give evidence of keeping His side of the covenant relationship. “I brought you up from the land of Egypt and ransomed you from the house of slavery” (Mic. 6:4-5). It is after this that God answers as a defendant for them. “With what shall I come to the Lord and bow myself before the God on high? Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, with yearling calves? Does the Lord take delight in thousands of rams, in ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my rebellious acts, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul” (Mic. 6:6-7)? Finally, God provides the answer as a judge. “He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God” (Mic. 6:8)?

This court scene that is laid out before us in this chapter is unlike our judgement. “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad” (2 Cor. 5:10). On that day, it will not be heaven and nature that is called as witness against us. It will be the words of Christ (John 12:48-50). In Revelation chapter six, there are six seals that are opened. The sixth seal is that of judgement and destruction. The question is asked after seeing this great calamity unfold, “Who is able to stand?” (Rev. 6:17). That is, who will be left after such great destruction? In chapter seven, we receive that answer beginning in verse nine. There is a great multitude from every nation and every tongue around the throne of God worshipping Him. John describes these worshippers. “These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev. 7:14). The day of our judgment is coming. Let us keep our robes white and persevere through this life to be able to stand before the God, the righteous Judge.

Will we be able to stand before the righteous Judge?

How to survive a terrible, horrible, bad day

We’ve all been there. Some more recently than others. Some more severe than others. We wonder—“Why me?” Why now?” How can I get through this?” Many answers could be offered, but let me focus on three.

ONE: Rejoice! “What? No way!” Read 1 Thessalonians 5:16 and James 1:2-4. (Go ahead. Read. I’ll wait.) Find three positive things over which to rejoice right now. They are there! Or stretch yourself to ten. There are at least that many. Give it a try. TWO: Pray! “Oh, sure! I knew you’d say that!” Read 1 Thessalonians 5:17 and Philippians 4:6. Talk to THE ONE who cares and who can! Know that He hears you! Trust that He answers you! THREE: Give thanks! “Now you’ve gone mad!” Read 1 Thessalonians 5:18 and Ephesians 5:20. Thank God for being with you and walking with you through each challenge! He has, He does, He will!

The Bible always works—that’s why I’m a preacher

Technology is fun. When it works, it’s great! You love it, and you don’t even think about “how” or “why” it works. You just appreciate it! BUT, when technology doesn’t work, it’s NOT great and you DON’T love it! And you have to try to figure out “how” and “why” it isn’t working! Sometimes stuff works; sometimes it doesn’t. That reality alone can be frustrating!

But, that’s one thing that makes the Bible so wonderful! The Bible always works! It doesn’t change. It doesn’t need to be updated. It doesn’t crash. It doesn’t have a battery that dies. It doesn’t have any circuits that short out. You don’t have to check to see if it’s plugged in. You don’t have to reboot it. It just always works! Verses always say the same thing! Verses don’t move to different places! Once you know Bible truth, it is always Bible truth!

I am thankful for tech guys who know how to fix tech stuff! Bless your hearts for your patience! But, I am more thankful for a Book on which I can ALWAYS rely, no matter what! Aren’t you! – DS
