Faithful Elder at Palm Beach Lakes

October 17, 1971 — October 12, 1980

July 27, 1986 — March 16, 2022

For nearly 45 years, Jerry Hopkins has served as a loving and devoted elder of this congregation! Palm Beach Lakes owes a tremendous debt of gratitude to this man for the selfless way that he has given of himself in service to the Lord's church!

Jerry's compassionate and tender heart permeated the eldership and the congregation, and it endeared him to every member, as he gently sought to lead each of us to heaven.

His love for the pure truth of the gospel, his love for the church, his love for every PBL member, his love for mission work, his love for singing and for worship, and his love for corny jokes made him an easy man and elder to love, respect and follow.

Thank you, Jerry and Shirley! We love you both so much! We will miss you!

Learning to Hate What He Hates

There is a paragraph in Proverbs which every person should know. Listen to God as He tries to get our attention and says, "These six things the Lord hates, yes, seven are an abomination to Him" (Prov. 6:16). We must never overlook what follows these words, for we must flee from all that God finds detestable. When we stand before God, we must not stand with anything that is an abomination to Him.

#1. God hates "a proud look." It may not be by accident that this is listed first. It is the opposite of humility which is found in the heart of the one who humbles himself before God. Humility leads one to God, but pride does just the opposite.

#2. God hates "a lying tongue." Our God cannot lie, and He by His holy nature wants us to always speak the truth. This must be very important for it is listed in another form in the sixth attitude God hates.

#3. God hates "hands that shed innocent blood." Our nation is shocked by the brutal killing of children in Ukraine, yet legally permits the slaughter of children in the womb. God abhors both of these.

#4. God hates "a heart that devises wicked plans." There are sins which come into our lives because of weakness which suddenly comes into our lives. There are sins which men lie awake at night and scheme how to do evil. God makes a difference between these. The difference is mercy and justice.

#5. God hates "feet that are swift in running to evil."

Those who plan evil do far more than make plans. They can hardly wait to carry them out. And they run to do evil!

#6. God hates "a false witness who speaks lies." This obviously involves lying which has already been mentioned, but in our day, think of how it applies to false teachers who claim they speak for God but lie.

#7. God hates "one who sows discord among brethren." Our God is one (Deut. 6:4) and longs for His people to be one. However, think of how serious it is when one stirs up trouble in a local congregation and creates a situation where the faith of so many is weakened. There were those individuals in Corinth who sowed discord over teachers like Paul, Apollos and Cephas. He refers to the church as God's temple and says, "If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him" (1 Cor. 3:17). Religious folks can create such havoc!

Think about this list and imagine standing before His judgment throne having paid no attention to this list. We need to know the list, but we must do all we can to destroy sinful actions from our lives. He is holy. God help us to be like Him.

Imagine standing before God having ignored what our God says
about holiness

Any Sex Outside of Marriage Is Sin

The title of this article will likely dissuade many folks from actually reading the article. "Sex" is not a topic some like to hear about. Talking about "sex outside of marriage" makes some think the church is still "living in the dark ages" to bring up such a subject. And to mention the word "sin" is to kill any conversation today. So, the title may not draw the readers in, but the title is nonetheless the truth. We must examine God's Word on every subject to know the truth. Then, we must teach and follow THAT truth!

First, we must recognize that God is the Creator, and therefore, God gets to tell man what He wants. God created man (Gen. 2:7). Then God created woman (Gen. 2:22a). Then God created marriage (Gen. 2:22b). Then God created sex inside that marriage (Gen. 2:24-25; 1:27-28). Man has no right to change God's designed order and God's specified arrangement.

God has blessed only the marriage bed (i.e., only sex between a husband and his wife). Hebrews 13:4 states, "Marriage is to be held in honor among all" (oh, would to God the world would read that!), "and the marriage bed is to be undefiled." Only sex inside marriage is approved by God. So, then what does God say about sex outside of marriage?

by God and
"unlawful"
in His sight

Hebrews 13:4 continues, "But fornicators and adulterers God will judge." Who are "fornicators"? The original Greek word for "fornication" means "various kinds of 'unsanctioned sexual intercourse'; unlawful sexual intercourse." Think about that definition. God placed "lawful" sexual intercourse inside a marriage, between a husband and his wife (Gen. 2:24-25; 1:27-28; 1 Cor. 7:2). Therefore, any kind (or as the definition states, "various kinds") of sexual intercourse outside of a husband-wife relationship is "unsanctioned" by God and "unlawful" in His sight.

Regarding "fornication," the Bible teaches us that "God will judge" fornicators (Heb. 13:4). What does that mean? They "will not inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Cor. 6:9), for they do not have "any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God" (Eph. 5:5). Instead, fornicators (i.e., those who engage in any sex outside of a God-approved marriage) will be on the "outside" of "the gates of" heaven, with no "right to the tree of life" (Rev. 22:14-15); indeed, they "shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone" (Rev. 21:8).

Recognizing the sinfulness of sex outside of marriage and the eternal consequences that are specified thereto, God pleads with us to "abstain from fornication" (1 Thess. 4:3) and "flee fornication" (1 Cor. 6:18), for "the body is not for fornication but for the Lord" (1 Cor. 6:13). Give yourself to the Lord!

“The Love of Christ Compels Us”

What keeps you motivated? You might rely on extrinsic motivations, money, praise, or recognition. Intrinsic motivations help also, that personal gratification of accomplishing a task is very rewarding. The motivation in our spiritual walk needs to be maintained. What keeps us making right choices? What helps me face those hard days? What presses me on toward the high calling or to go into all the world with the gospel? In the fifth chapter of Second Corinthians, Paul lays out before us three possible motivations.

He begins with the judgement of God. “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad” (2 Cor. 5:10). This is only mentioned after talking about his desire to be with the Lord and our “ambition” to be pleasing to Him (2 Cor. 5:6-9). Knowing that there is a future judgement that all must go through and that everything we have done will be examined should be a motivating factor. Over and over the New Testament writers used, by the inspiration of God, the judgment as a motivation factor (1 Pet. 4:17; Rom. 2:3). As Paul is talking about it in this context, he seemingly welcomes it without fear. We all could be in that spiritual place. “By this, love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment” (1 John 4:17a). Love for God and obedience to Him can keep us from the fear of judgement.

Fear is a great motivator. It keeps people from doing a lot of things. Fear is what governments use to control the masses. Fear of monetary penalties, fear of incarceration and fear of death. The Bible says that fear is a tool to be used by governing authorities (Rom. 13:4, 7). Is it any wonder that God would use fear? Paul in the context writes, “Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men” (2 Co. 5:11a). Six times in Proverbs, Solomon mentions the value of the fear of the Lord. He only mentions two things. “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom” (Prov. 1:7; 9:10; 15:33). “The fear of the Lord prolongs life” (Prov. 10:27; 14:27; 19:23). The fear of God has its value. It motivates to action. Wisdom reacts appropriately to fear, and that action can be life-saving—if not physically, certainly spiritually.

Judgement and fear move us toward the last motivating factor. “For the love of Christ controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died” (2 Cor. 5:14). If we have been motivated to serve, we have all gone through being motivated by these factors—judgement, fear, and love. All three have their place, and as we mature, we fear less and love more. John says, “Perfect [mature] love casts out fear” (1 John 4:18). Love for God keeps us motivated.

We have all gone through being motivated by these factors.

Mending the broken

After a long day of fishing, the nets of the first century would become stretched and broken in places. If nothing was done about it, future endeavors to catch fish would result in fish just slipping through the nets. So, every day faithful fishermen would spend time “mending their nets,” so that they could continue to catch and keep the fish in their nets (Matt. 4:21).

The same Greek word for “mending” is found in Galatians 6:1, in an instruction to New Testament Christians. “Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness...” The word “restore” involves that same concept as “mending” the nets. Do you know that Christians can sometimes “slip through the cracks”? How is that? They get “caught in” sin but no one notices or works to help put them back together and make them complete again in Christ. Fellow Christian, we need to work every day like those fishermen, gently trying to mend and restore those Christians who have fallen into sin. — DS

What would you write?

Sometimes we read articles and we think: “Well, I wouldn’t have said it that way. He/She should have said this. That really didn’t have as much impact as it could have or should have.” A very wise man told me nearly 30 years ago, “There are many editors and few authors.” So, if you are one that thinks “it should be said better” or “it could be said better,” then by all means, “Say it.”

But, for any written communication to be taken seriously from you, it must first be “read” in your life. That’s why Paul told early Christians, “You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men” (2 Cor. 3:2). People are going to “read you” first before they “read your words.” If your life isn’t worth following, your words won’t be either.

Is there something your friends need to hear? Is there something your family members need to hear? Then write it (Heb. 13:22; 1 John 2:1). Write them a personal letter. If you’re on social media, use that to teach and encourage others. To make an impact in the lives of others, what would you write? — DS
