It's More Than a Song for Children

Those songs which we sang years ago can easily be laid aside, and we forget their powerful messages. Paul talked about "putting away childish things" (1 Cor. 13:11), but this has nothing to do with forgetting those vital truths we learned even before we went to school. Look at one of those songs.

"This little light of mine..." or in another version, "This little Christian light of mine" (even though they are not yet Christians), is at the beginning of the song. It is not just children who have a light, Jesus wants all of us to be the light of the world (Matt. 5:14). We are lights because we are followers of the Light (John 9:5). We reflect His glory into the world of darkness. We must not overlook just how powerful "this little Christian light" of mine is. When Jesus said, "You are the light of the world," the word "you" is plural (KJV—Ye are the light) but the word "light" is singular. By yourself you may think you have no influence on others, but never forget that a city (composed of many lights) cannot be hidden.

"All around the neighborhood..." is where I'm gonna let it shine. We all live in a different "hood," and this is why we must see the lost souls on our streets, in our workplace and in every shop we visit. Remember how Jesus described what it means to love your neighbor. The man who helped the battered man beside the road to Jericho was not from that "hood." In fact, he was from another nation (a Samaritan), yet he was the one who Jesus described as the neighbor. Your "hood" begins at your front door and follows you to every place you go each day.

"Hide it under a bushel..." Jesus said we should put our lights on a candlestick to give light to all of those in the house. Not just some, but all in the house! There is no selectivity in choosing those who see our lights. There is a consistency of character that is determined, not by the audience, but by our moral fiber. Men in darkness may hate the light (John 3:19-20), but we are not "secret" Christians.

"Don't let Satan..." put it out. Paul says that we wrestle against "the god of this age" "blinded" those who are unbelievers (2 Cor. 4:4) and this god will do all he can to keep our lights hidden "...lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them" (4:4). Far too many Christians have let Satan hide their lights under a bushel.

"I'm gonna let it shine, let it shine, let it shine." Shining our lights demands we make a firm decision about what we are "gonna" do! Have you faithfully done this? Perhaps we should not have forgotten the words of this song. It may not be a children's song after all!

Far too many Christians have let Satan hide their lights under a bushel

Preachers and Christians, Watch Out!

Sometimes we want credit for things that we do, even things that we do in the church as a Christian. It is difficult to let someone else get the credit or attention resulting from something we have done. Such a craving for recognition caused some of John the Baptist's disciples to inform John of someone who was stealing the spotlight from him. They said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all are coming to Him!" (John 3:26).

It had been John's show for a while, as he was preparing the way for the Lord. His teaching efforts were proving successful, as "all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him and were baptized by him" (Matt. 3:7-8). That would make a man feel good about his efforts. The Bible even called certain people, "the disciples of John" (Luke 5:33; 7:18-19; 11:1). A person in this position could get a big head and think much about himself and take credit for the work he was doing. But that wasn't John's heart. Take note of what John said after his disciples warned him that Jesus was surpassing him.

First, John conceded that his work (and all the results therefrom) had been "given to him from heaven" (John 3:27). What was happening was according to Divine will.

Second, John reminded his friends that his ministry was not about him, for "I am not the Christ" (3:28). He was coming before and preparing the way for the true Messiah.

Third, John expressed that, as Jesus' "friend," he "rejoices greatly" at the "voice" of his Friend, and his "joy" was "full" to know his work was fulfilling its purpose (3:29). Rather than jealousy or resentment, he was happy.

Fourth, John recognized who he was next to Jesus. His humility shines forth in this short yet profound realization, "He must increase, but I must decrease" (3:30). The present tense verbs indicate that both processes needed to be ongoing.

Fifth, John exalted Christ unequivocally in front of his followers. Twice in verse 31, John exclaimed that Christ is "above all." In other words, John is telling his friends that this man to whom "all are coming" is "above" me! And I'm glad!

Sixth, John charged his disciples to listen to and obey the Christ. John declared that Jesus "speaks the words of God" (3:34) and the one "who believes in the Son has everlasting life" (3:36). But "the wrath of God" is upon him who "does not obey the Son." One must believe and obey!

John refused to take any credit! He wanted all men to look through him to see the Christ! Can we say the same?

fulfilling its purpose

A Faith That Overcomes

When we sing, we are edified by the message of many songs—songs like “Faith Is the Victory,” “We Have an Anchor,” “Be Not Dismayed” or “Victory in Jesus.” These are sung to remind and get us thinking about our faith. These are songs that remind us to have a faith that can overcome.

We read from the first of John’s letters, “For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith” (1 John 5:4). We forget the power of strong faith. We also read, “So that by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us. This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil” (Heb. 6:18-19).

As individuals and as a congregation we need to remember to have faith in God that He has done more than what He said He would do. “Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Ebenezer, saying, ‘Thus far the Lord has helped us’” (1 Sam. 7:12). What are we doing to remember what the Lord has done for us? We pray and then we are astonished when it is answered. The trick is praying as though it is already answered. What would it hurt to be more conscious of the things we prayed for and to thank God for answered prayers and for His providential care that we take for granted so often? In Samuel’s time, the care given by God was noted and stones were set up to remember what God had done.

A question might be, “Should we be concerned about overcoming this world?” “Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life” (Rev. 2:10). It is like this because this world is a death trap (Rom. 6:23; 1 Pet. 5:7). How many of us have been swept away by life’s events, and we wonder how we got there? The remedy is simple. “Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God” (Heb. 12:1-2).

There are simple things that help in our lives. The most simple is faith. Everyone needs to believe in something. Paul taught Timothy, “Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called” (1 Tim. 6:12).

Everyone needs to believe in something.

Nothing to joke about

After playing AC/DC’s 1979 hit, “Highway to Hell,” the classic rock radio DJ quipped, “When life on this spinning ball called earth is over, will you ascend the beautiful ‘Stairway to Heaven’ or will you speed full throttle down the ‘Highway to Hell’? I know where I’m going! And I’m gonna need my sunglasses and shorts, because it’s going to be really hot! Ha!”

The rich man in Luke 16 wasn’t even in hell yet, when he “cried” from “torments in Hades...‘I am tormented in this flame’” (16:23-24). Does that sound like a joke? Jesus Himself described hell as “everlasting punishment” (Matt. 25:46), “everlasting fire” (Matt. 25:41), “outer darkness” (Matt. 25:30), where “the fire shall never be quenched” (Mark 9:43-48), “their worm does not die” (Mark 9:44-48), and there will be “weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Matt. 8:12). It is “prepared for the devil and his angels” (Matt. 25:41), “away from the presence of the Lord” (2 Thess. 1:9).

Hell is NOTHING to joke about! It is EVERYTHING to avoid! Thank God for showing us “the way which leads to life” (Matt.

The simple answer to the problems around us

It seems like every time you check the news these days there is a catastrophe of some kind that has taken place, often some immoral or violent activity. Pundits are quick to offer their brilliant ideas on how to solve the problems: “Make more laws.” “Take away guns.” “Do things our way.” But guess what? None of these things (or other ideas they offer) will fix the problem!

The problem (notice the singular use of this word, rather than plural) we are facing as a nation is the direct result of an expulsion of God from our land! When faith in God is mocked and evolution is praised, catastrophe will follow. When the Bible is discarded and wokeism rules, catastrophe will follow. When Jesus Christ is hated and the flaunting sinner is revered, catastrophe will follow.

The simple answer to the problems around us is to point people to God, to teach the Bible and to exalt Jesus Christ! Any effort short of that will not work! “Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people” (Prov. 14:34)! – DS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It was no surprise to us for the love and dearest attention that was given to us by all of you at Palm Beach Lakes in the loss of our dear son, Johnny. We love you all so much and cherish the moments that you cared for us, attended to us, and prayed for Johnny and for us. We are also very thankful for all the care that you gave us and Johnny during his battle and the myriad of cards and notes that we received.

We love you all,

You Are Inadequate

By Robert Lupo (Summer Intern)

Do you ever feel like you aren't good enough? Inadequacy is a common feeling in many aspects of life. We want to do a good job at what we do and when we fail, it can be very frustrating.

There is one area, however, where you will always be inadequate. No matter how hard you try or how much you practice, you will never be more holy than God. In 1 Samuel 2:2, Hannah prayed, "No one is holy like the Lord, for there is none besides You." That probably seems obvious, but sometimes our actions don't reflect this. Sometimes, our actions are those of someone who thinks he is equal with God.

When we approach Scripture, do we look to find God's teaching (2 Pet. 1:20), or do we seek to validate our pre-conceptions? When we go to God in prayer, do we make our requests known as humble servants seeking the Lord's grace (2 Chron. 7:14), or do we address Him as an equal who owes us a favor? Hannah was barren and wanted nothing more than to have a son. So, she went to the temple and prayed fervently to the Lord. In Samuel 1:11, Hannah made a vow that, should the Lord give her a son, she will dedicate him to the Lord. The Lord heard Hannah because of her humble spirit (v. 19).

Hannah understood God's holiness. She understood her inadequacy and humbled herself. Let us work daily to be pleasing to Him with all humility and reverence (2 Tim 2:15).
