Balancing the Past, the Present and the Future

Make sure you live in the present and every moment of today.

people get what they don't deserve.

We all share something in common and that is each one of us has a past, a present and a future in our lives. The Bible can help us to deal with these three aspects of living and understand how they fit in the lives we seek to live for Him. We must learn how to balance all of these in our lives.

Consider our past. There are those who look at their past and all they can see are the mistakes they have made. To focus on the blunders of the past is not healthy, and it can so easily create a sense of shame because of what we did. To focus on the blunders causes many to live in fear of the day of judgment. This results in an attitude of low self-esteem and depression. The Bible speaks with clarity about how to deal with those deeds of the past before we became Christians. Paul looked at his past and said, "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward...I press toward the goal..." (Phil. 3:13-14). When your past mistakes press upon you, just remember that in one sense God does not even remember you did them (Jer. 31:34)!

Consider the future. Before looking at the present, take time to realize what the Bible says about the future. The mistake that many make is that they think they know what lies ahead and that they control all that will happen to them. The Bible clearly says, "You do not know what will happen tomorrow" (James 4:14). Just before Jesus ascended, He reminded the apostles of an eternal truth. "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority" (Acts 1:7). What He has revealed about the future gives us glimpses of the end of this age and the coming judgment, but He has not revealed the tomorrows in our lives. How do we balance the unknown future in daily living? Keep this in mind.

While we do not know what the future holds, we do know Him who holds the future. Trust Him!

Consider the present. We must never forget the importance of using this day to the fullest. We cannot change the mistakes of the past and we cannot know the events of tomorrow. Listen to God as He speaks of the events of today. The word "today" is found three times in Hebrews chapter three. It is used twice to show the importance of hearing the voice of God today and not be rebellious to what He says (vs. 7, 15). Read carefully what God says in verse thirteen. "Exhort one another daily, while it is called 'Today,' lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." You might consider the prayer I heard of an older brother years ago. "Lord, I am lonely, my mate is dead and my children have almost forgotten me. Take me home tonight, but if there is anything I can do for you tomorrow, be sure to wake me up." Make the most you can of today. Make sure you live a balanced life.

By David Sproule

It Was All Undeserved

Sometimes students will complain that they "deserve a better grade." Sometimes employees will argue that they "deserve a raise." Sometimes children will claim that they "deserve a treat." The word deserve means "to do something or have or show qualities worthy of reward or punishment." Sometimes people get what they deserve. Sometimes (Gen people get what they don't deserve. Let's consider two monumental examples of the latter.

Sometimes

Jesus didn't deserve what He received! The Bible says that the Son of God took on flesh and came to live among man (John 1:14; Phil. 2:5-8; Rom. 8:3). What did He deserve? He deserved the highest praise, honor and devotion that humanity could muster. But that is far from what He received!

Scripture records that "He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him" (John 1:11). As Isaiah had foretold, Jesus was "despised and rejected by men," and rather than "esteem Him," man "esteemed Him stricken" and "afflicted... wounded...bruised" (Isa. 53:3-5). With "lawless hands," they "crucified and put to death" the Christ (Acts 2:23). Of all people, Pilate is the one who kept repeating, "I find no fault in Him" (John 18:38; 19:4, 6; Luke 23:22), for He had "done nothing wrong" (Luke 23:41). Jesus did NOT deserve any of this!

We don't deserve what we've received! God created us in His image (Gen. 1:26-27). What a thought that is! Then He took the rest of His creation and "gave" it to us (Gen. 1:29-30) and gave us "dominion" over it (Gen. 1:26, 28). He told us what we needed to do to please Him (Gen. 1:28; 2:15-17), and then we snubbed our nose at Him and did exactly what He told us not to do and then tried to blame others for our failings (Gen. 3:1-6, 11-13). But it wasn't just Adam and Eve.

"Through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned" (Rom. 5:12).

Yet, here is the amazing part! "Even when we were dead in trespasses," bearing the just guilt for our own sins, God's "great love with which He loved us" was extended to us through the coming of Christ (Eph. 2:4-7). "God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8), so that we might have "forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified" (Acts 26:18; cf. Eph. 1:7). We certainly did NOT deserve any of this!

If none of this was deserved, why did all of it happen? Simply, it is because of "the exceeding riches of His grace" (Eph. 2:7; 1:7). Our God is "rich in mercy" (Eph. 2:4), and He lovingly allowed Jesus to receive what He didn't deserve so that we could receive what we don't deserve! Wow!

God's Punishment Is Sure

Crime requires punishment. We live in a nation based on what is called, "The rule of law." When a crime is committed, it is the government's job to apprehend and punish the criminal. This natural need for justice comes directly from God and was demonstrated to all of mankind.

Sin is a crime against God and the punishment for sin is eternal separation from Him (Rom. 6:23). For those who are in Christ (Rom. 6:3-4), we have been adopted into a special relationship with Jesus, who will forgive us of any sin, if we turn from our sin and ask for forgiveness. The Bible tells us that Jesus stands as our Advocate to the Father, ready to plead our case (1 John 1:9-2:2). However, some have read this and concluded that we are freed from consequences.

While there is no longer an ultimate punishment for those in Christ (Rom 8:1), sin still bears consequences.

In Numbers 14, the children of Israel commit a grave sin against the very promise of God. Because of their fear, they refuse to enter Canaan and seek a new leader to take them back to Egypt (Num 14:3-4). The Lord seeks to punish them for their actions and declares in verse 12, "I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them." Like Christians, the Israelites had an advocate in Moses. Moses spoke with God and prayed for the forgiveness of Israel (v. 18-19). Notice that while Moses absolutely prays for their pardoning, he also prays for their punishment. Moses says, "The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means clears the guilty."

The children of Israel had to face consequences for their actions. All their generation were barred from entering the Promised Land and the Lord's punishment was fulfilled in > Numbers 26:64-65. "But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Sinai. For the Lord had said of them, 'They shall surely die in the wilderness."

> We must be aware of the consequences of our actions (Gal. 6:7-8). When we commit sin against our brethren, relationships are hurt, and trust is fractured. While God can truly forget ours sins (Heb 8:12), it is harder for our brethren.

We can also abuse the relationship we have with God! If we continue to sin willfully, the Bible says, "there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries" (Heb. 10:26-27). Do not be fooled. As sure as the punishment was carried out on Israel, punishment will be carried out on us in the last day if we continue in sin.

THOUGH

for the Dav

We must be aware of the consequences of our actions.

Do you like to get paid back?

Did you ever loan someone some money, and then you wondered if you would ever get paid back? Do you think that God would be good at paying someone back?

There is some interesting terminology to that effect in Colossians 3. Read it carefully: "And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ" (3:23) -24). The Lord rewards His faithful followers. But then look at the next verse: "But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and there is no partiality" (3:25).

Those who do "wrong" by the Lord and do "wrong" by their fellowman (pay attention to the context) will be "paid back" (ESV) without partiality. Do you suppose the Lord knows how much trouble we've borrowed that needs to be "repaid"? Do you suppose the Lord repays with interest? Let us "fear God" (3:22) and do all "heartily, as to the Lord," so that we don't find out how much He repays those who do wrong! - DS

Do not hide from helping

Have you ever seen a fellow Christian have a particular need and deflected your eyes away and thought, "Not my problem! Someone else can deal with this. I've got other things to do"? Is that a big deal?

Consider first these instructions to the Jews long ago. "You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray, and hide yourself from them...You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them" (Deut. 22:4). God's people were required to take action! Then, look at God's instructions to Christians in the New Testament. "But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?" (1 John 3:17).

The priest and Levite in the parable of the Good Samaritan illustrate the Lord's condemnation of those who see a brother in need and "pass by" (Luke 10:30-32). The Lord's command is simple, "You must not hide yourself" (Deut. 22:3). Brethren, do not hide yourself from helping! - DS

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says...

1. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31).

2. Repent of your sinful ways

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19).

3. Confess your faith in Jesus

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus...you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9).

4. Be immersed in water

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).

5. Commit to a lifetime of faithful service

"Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10).
