A Land of Cloudless Days?

I have no problem with the poetic nature of the song about a “land of cloudless day” as it contrasts the dark “clouds” of trouble that seemingly surround us on this ball of clay. However, there is another aspect of the clouds emphasized in the Bible and how they are so often associated with the presence of God and His glory. Take time to look at this aspect.

Before the Jews even arrived at Mt. Sinai God lead them with His presence in His cloud (Ex. 13:17-18, 21). When they murmured against God because there was no food, He gave them manna and quails, but first “...they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud” (Ex. 16:10).

When they came to Mt. Sinai God covered the mountain with His cloud. “Now the glory of the Lord rested on Mt. Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. The sight of the glory of the Lord was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. So Moses went into the midst of the cloud...and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights” (Ex. 24:16-18).

God manifested His glory in the cloud which descended on Moses’ personal tent, and then when the tabernacle was built God showed His presence in His cloud which came to that greater tabernacle (Ex. 33:9; 40:34-35).

Hundreds of years later Solomon built a permanent temple. Read the words about what happened as it was dedicated. “When the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord, so that the priest could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord” (1 Kings 8:10-11).

God has always used clouds and lightning to manifest His glory to mankind

Hear the words of the psalmist which show that His glory is seen in His clouds. “Sing to God, sing praises to His name; extol Him who rides on the clouds” (Psa. 68:4). Later the psalmist says that God is One “...who makes the clouds His chariot, who walks on the wings of the wind” (104:3).

So, the next time you look at the clouds see in them the manifestation of His glory. He placed the clouds in the firmament and that firmament shows His hand at work and His glory (Gen. 9:13-14; Psa. 19:1).

There is so much more. Use your concordance to read every mention of the clouds. Where would we be without seeing His clouds manifesting His glory in His every sunrise and every sunset? The book of Job says that the lightning coming from the clouds and the crashing thunder which follows “...declare His presence” (Job 36:32-33). Some day we shall see His glory in a land where there may or may not be clouds!

Do You Know MY Jesus?

There are many wonderful things to know about Jesus, and oh, how we ought to wish that the whole world would know them! He was born of a virgin in the city of Bethlehem. He had Divine power on this earth and taught many magnificent things. He lived a sinless life but was still murdered by crucifixion. He was raised from the dead and ascended into heaven to reign on high.

It is easy to “know” facts about Jesus, but that does not necessarily mean that someone “knows” Jesus. These “facts” about Jesus need to be known and believed (1 Cor. 15:1-2), but each person needs to go deeper than the facts to an intimate, one-on-one, closer-than-anyone-else relationship with Jesus. Do you have it? Do you want it for others? Here’s what we should want for others.

Do you know MY Jesus? He’s My Savior! Upon learning that she would be the mother of “Jesus...the Son of the Highest” (Luke 1:31-32), Mary “rejoiced in God my Savior” (1:47). Mary likely knew that “besides [Jehovah] there is no Savior” (Isa. 43:11), but she may not have realized that she would give birth to her Savior in the form of a man. He was Mary’s Savior, just like He needs to be “my Savior”!

Do you know MY Jesus? He’s My Lord! Mary Magdalene was a close disciple of Jesus. When she found His tomb empty, she grew concerned about “my Lord” (John 20:13). “Lord” is someone with authority to direct and to whom followers must submit, but “Lord” is also one we wish to please. He was Mary’s Lord, just like He needs to be “my Lord”!

Do you know MY Jesus? He’s My God! Thomas had expressed willingness to “die with” the human named Jesus (John 11:16), but it was only after His resurrection that he recognized Him as “my God” (John 20:28)—the one with supreme strength and power to create and effect all things, even rising from the chains of death. He was Thomas’ God, just like He needs to be “my God”!

Do you know MY Jesus? He’s My Friend! It was Jesus Himself who identified Lazarus as His “friend” (John 11:11). Even after Lazarus was dead, he still obeyed Jesus. When Jesus spoke directly, “Lazarus, come forth,” Lazarus “came out” just as he was told (John 11:43-44). He was Lazarus’ Friend, just like He needs to be “my Friend,” when I “do whatever” He commands (15:14).

Do you know MY Jesus? He’s My Life! Paul gladly took his relationship with Jesus to another level. To the Colossians, he called Jesus, my “life” (Col. 3:4), and to the Philippians, he exclaimed, “For me to live is Christ” (Phil. 1:21). What an all-encompassing submission! He was Paul’s Life, just like He needs to be “my Life”! Do you know MY Jesus?

How Are You Doing?

How are you doing? I mean, how are you really doing? Is everything really “ok” or are you just trying to be polite? No one wants to be a bother. Each of us has their own problems to worry about, so we will go to great lengths to avoid burdening others with ours.

First, we need to understand that our brethren are usually far more ready and willing to listen than we give them credit for. A faithful Christian knows that they have a duty to “...do good to all, especially those who are of the household of faith” (Gal. 6:10). That duty includes sharing in one another’s burdens “...and so fulfilling the law of Christ” (v. 2). So, we should never think that we cannot bring our concerns before the church. We need to allow our brethren to fulfill the law of Christ in hearing us out.

Second, and more importantly, God is perfectly ready and willing to listen to our burdens. God cares for us, and He has laid His heart out to us throughout the scriptures. “...casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you” (1 Pet. 5:6–7). “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God” (Isa. 41:10). “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

Though He stands far and above us as the infinite and almighty God, our Lord has shaped His eternal will around us.

If God is so ready and willing to hear us, then why do we forget to ask? Why do we neglect our prayers? As infants, we freely and unreservedly cried out to our parents for every need and desire we had. Our parents, in return, provided them without a second thought. Why then, when we are grown, do we treat God like a stingy stepfather? Jesus said, “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!” (Matt. 7:11).

Why then, when we are grown, do we treat God like a stingy stepfather?

Some days parents get frustrated with their child’s cries, but God never does. “Therefore know that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments...” (Deut. 7:9). “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God...” (Phil. 4:6). “Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:16).

How are you doing? I mean, how are you really doing? You do not have to carry your burdens alone. Your church and the God who built her is waiting for you to ask.

Doing the right thing isn’t always easy

Extending forgiveness to someone is hard! It is especially hard when we have been hurt deeply and even repeatedly. Sometimes a person will ask for our forgiveness, and we will be hesitant or resist completely. Sometimes we will not accept a person’s apology because “they didn’t say it just right.” There are many layers to the matter of forgiveness, but consider an example.

Stephen was “a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit” and “wisdom” (Acts 6:3, 5). He preached a compelling sermon on the history of Israel, who ultimately were “the betrayers and murderers” of Jesus Christ (Acts 7:52). In turn, these men also became the murderers of Stephen himself. In his dying breath, Stephen prayed, “Lord, do not charge them with this sin” (7:60).

Had these persons asked for Stephen’s forgiveness? Had they changed their ways? No! They were casting stones at him. Yet, Stephen had a heart of forgiveness, and he did not want any “unforgiving” spirit in him (cf. Rom. 1:31; 2 Tim. 3:3) to keep God from forgiving him (Matt. 6:14-15). Forgiving is hard, but forgiving draws us near the heart of God. That’s what matters! – DS

The devil deceives

The devil “transforms himself into an angel of light” (2 Cor. 11:14). The devil can take darkness (i.e., sin that is unacceptable to God) and make it look like light (i.e., something acceptable to God). And all the while, he deceives you into not seeing what is so plain.

Friends, please, do not be deceived! Do not be swindled into taking a little money or a little product here or there, because you “deserve it.” Do not be fooled into looking at some salacious images, since “all” you’re doing “is looking.” Do not be duped into a compromising relationship with a married coworker, thinking “we’re just friends leaning upon each other.” Do not be tricked into thinking you are strong enough to live a faithful Christian life on your own, being convinced that assemblies are not important and brethren are not that significant.

Yes, the devil is busy! His task is one of deception! He is so good at it, that we sometimes argue back at even the idea that we might be deceived. Friends, “submit to God” and “resist the devil” (Jas. 4:7). – DS

7 Tricks of the Devil

by Chris Fry

(Especially for teens, but good for all!)

1. He Flat-Out Lies!

- a. He is the father of lies.
  - 1) "...When he (Satan) speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it" (John 8:44).
- b. False Teaching (Matt. 7:15; 24:11)
- c. False Ideas/concepts
  - 1) Physical appearance (1 Pet. 3:3-5)
  - 2) Money and material items (1 Tim. 6:9-10; Psa. 119:37)
  - 3) Pleasure (Phil. 3:19)

2. He Tempts!

- a. "Now the serpent was more cunning..." (Gen. 3:1).
- b. Matthew 4:1-10 records Jesus' temptations.
  - 1) Three temptations
  - 2) "For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world" (1 John 2:16).

3. He Deceives!

- a. He makes it seem like good is evil and evil is good (Isa. 5:20).
- b. "For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light" (2 Cor. 11:14).
- c. He makes things seem what they are not (Gen. 3:1-6).
- d. He twists the truth (Matt. 4:6).

4. He Slanders (He Talks Badly About You)!

- a. Devil means "slanderer."
- b. Satan is a transliteration of the Hebrew word "adversary."
- c. He makes many accusations about Job in Job 1:9-11.
- d. "For the accuser of our brethren" (Rev. 12:10).

5. He Seeks to Destroy!

- a. "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Pet. 5:8).
- b. "He was a murderer from the beginning..." (John 8:44).

6. He Schemes!

- a. He exhibits an ability to scheme and plan a course of action that will deceive people (Eph. 6:11; Rev. 12:9).
- b. "Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil" (Eph. 6:11).
- c. "...Satan, who deceives the whole world..." (Rev. 12:9).

7. He Wants Us to Be Busy!

- a. Our world is very busy.
- b. When we are busy, we don't take time to be holy.
- c. "Be still, and know that I am God..." (Psa. 46:10).
- d. "Listen to this, O Job; Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God" (Job 37:14).

"...always abounding in the work of the Lord..." (1 Cor. 15:58)
