Getting Teachers Out of the Corners of the Room

The change in how students are disciplined in school is vastly different from what it used to be. In those days, there was the “board of education” (the teacher’s heavy paddle) and proper behavior was demanded. I remember another way of disciplining at the West Huntsville Grammar School.

A disobedient student was made to go to the corner of the room and touch his nose into that corner. He was shamed and no longer part of group activities and community. When the time came for recess and going outside to play, he had to remain in the corner. Remember this kind of punishment as you continue to read, for we shall come back to it shortly.

In Isaiah chapter thirty, we read how the nation of Israel had turned away from God. They were children, who rejected God’s plans and refused His counsel (vs. 1-2). They were “...rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to hear the instruction of the Lord” (v. 9).

God sent His messenger, called seers, and they told the seers, “Do not see,” and told His prophets, “Do not prophesy to us what is right; speak to us smooth things; prophesy illusions, leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel” (vs. 10, 11). This sounds so much like what is happening in Christendom in our land.

A bad student was removed and made to sit in the corner of the room

The next several verses describe what the false prophets refused to tell them, and in this way gained favor with the people as they spoke “smooth things” to them. God told Isaiah to write in his book, the book of Isaiah, that there would be a permanent record of what lay ahead (v. 8). As we read that book, there is a description of an unseen crumbling in the wall of security they thought they had. It was bulging and about to fall suddenly and in an instant (v. 13). This is precisely what happened to that nation who despised His word and trusted in the perverted words of the false prophets.

Yet, there was hope for the nation if they returned to God and heard His teachers and prophets. When their hearts changed, God’s teachers “would not be moved into a corner anymore” (v. 20). As I read these words, I think of my childhood. The Jews had taken His teachers and removed them from the nation and sent them to the corner of the room. It was the way they removed the truth from their lives. However, when they repented, these prophets of God would be honored and figuratively stand in their midst. Their message would not change. If the Jews turned to the left or the right, they would again hear them say, “This is the way, walk in it” (v. 21).

God, help us to stop pushing Your message into the corners of our lives. God, help us to honor Your words and have them in the center of our lives.

The Missing Link in Some Conversions Today

A form of the word “repent” is found over 60 times in the Bible. We may think about it strictly as a New Testament term, but 10 of the 60+ uses are in the Old Testament. So, “repentance” is certainly a Biblical concept from beginning to end.

Generally speaking, we know what it means to “repent.” The basic meaning of the term is to “change one’s mind.” It is, essentially, a change of mind that leads to a change of life. Most have probably heard sermons on the subject and certainly have heard the step of “repentance” included in God’s plan of salvation. But, is it possible that we have neglected to emphasize this God-given responsibility as much as God would have us to emphasize it?

Repenting is a command of God. John the Baptist’s preaching could be summarized with the command that he issued to “Repent” (Matt. 3:2). Jesus came and preached the same sermon to “Repent” (Matt. 4:17; Mark 1:15). It is a “command” that “all men everywhere” must obey (Acts 17:30). Even Christians who have sinned are commanded to “Repent” (Acts 8:22; Rev. 2:5, 16; 3:3, 19). This is not something optional that we can ignore.

Repenting carries with it great rewards when obeyed. Repentance can lead one into “the kingdom of God” (Mark 1:15), lead to “remission of sins” (Luke 24:47; Acts 2:38; 3:19; 8:22; 2 Cor. 7:10), lead to “joy in heaven” (Luke 15:7) and can lead to eternal “life” (Acts 11:18).

Repenting carries with it severe consequences when neglected. Choosing to not repent leads one to be “rebuked” by the Lord (Matt. 11:20), to be “removed” by the Lord from His sight (Rev. 2:5, 16), and to “perish” (Luke 13:3; 2 Pet. 3:9).

Repenting from sins should be motivated by the presence and consequences of sins in our lives (Acts 8:21-22), “godly sorrow” for those sins (2 Cor. 7:9-10) and by the “goodness” and “longsuffering” of God toward us (Rom. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9).

Here is a concern. Is it possible that we are sometimes so eager to convert someone to Christ by getting them baptized for the “remission” of their sins that we do not spend enough time emphasizing the meaning, obligation and urgency of repentance from those sins? Is it possible that some people are not actually “converted to Christ” because we skipped this all-important step? Is it possible that more new converts would remain faithful if they truly understood the nature of sin and the personal responsibility to repent of those sins? Is it possible that more Christians would continue to repent of sins throughout their Christian life if they had learned that lesson before becoming a Christian? Is repentance a “missing link”?

Is it possible that we do not spend enough time emphasizing repentance?

What “The Hippo Song” Can Teach You

Year after year, VBS after VBS, there is one song that gets more requests and more hype over any other. Of course, it is the monstrously popular “Hippo Song.” Its silly lyrics combined with blazing fast movements make it a spectacular event in and of itself. But, what value does it bring?

Many of the songs we sing have a clear spiritual value. “Jesus Love Me” teaches us that the eternal love of Christ can be found in the pages of the Bible. “The Wise Man” teaches us the famous parable about building your life upon the teachings of Jesus. But, what in the world makes “The Hippo Song” worth burning all of those calories and risking injury? I’ve got two great reasons.

First, it teaches that the creation of the world demonstrates God’s love for mankind. The song says, “In the beginning, God made the seas and the forest filled with trees; made the mountaintops so high. At the top He placed the sky. His fingerprints are everywhere, just to show how much He cares.”

How do we know God is real? Because we can see His work in the universe. “The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork” (Psa. 19:1). How do we know that God loves us? Because He made the world just right for us to live and flourish. “For thus says the Lord, Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited” (Isa. 45:18). All the creativity and planning that went into the world was done just for us. What a wonderful thing to sing about.

Second, and this is really important, “The Hippo Song” teaches us to laugh. When I was an aftercare counselor, if I had a student in a sour mood, I would have them do a lap around the cafeteria while skipping. Without fail, the child’s frown would slowly change into a smile! You can’t stay in a bad mood if you’re doing something silly. Silliness brings laughter, and laughter brings joy. And there is no VBS song that causes more laughter than “The Hippo Song.”

Laughter is an important creation of our heavenly Father meant to enrich our lives and draw us to Him. Sarah was right when she said, “God has made laughter for me...” (Gen. 21:6). Laughter makes life more enjoyable and fulfilling. The Proverbs tell us, “A joyful heart is good medicine...,” “A glad heart makes a cheerful face,” and “...he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast” (Prov. 17:22; 15:13, 15).

I love “The Hippo Song” for the truth it teaches and the joy it brings. I hope we get our fill, laughing with our children as we get dizzy singing this great song together.

“God has made laughter for me...”
(Gen. 21:6).

“With you”

Various ones throughout the Bible were given the same encouraging, bolstering, motivating message. Abraham was told: “God is with you” (Gen. 21:22). Isaac was told: “the Lord is with you” (Gen. 26:28). Israel was told: “the Lord your God is with you” (Deut. 20:1). Joshua was told: “the Lord your God is with you” (Josh. 1:9). Gideon was told: “The Lord is with you” (Judg. 6:12). King Saul was told: “God is with you” (1 Sam. 10:7). David was told: “the Lord is with you” (2 Sam. 7:3). King Asa was told: “The Lord is with you while you are with Him” (2 Chron. 15:2). Judah was told: “the Lord is with you” (2 Chron. 20:17). Mary was told: “the Lord is with you” (Luke 1:28).

The Lord said to Isaac, “I am with you” (Gen. 26:24), to Jacob, “I am with you” (Gen. 28:15), to Israel, “I am with you” (Isa. 41:10; 43:5), to Jeremiah, “I am with you” (Jer. 1:8, 19; 15:20), to Judah, “I am with you” (Jer. 30:11; 46:28), to the returning remnant, “I am with you” (Hag. 1:13; 2:4).

Yes, He says to you, “I am with you always” (Matt. 28:20)! Encouraging, bolstering, motivating! Don’t ever forget it or doubt it! – DS

They remembered His words

On Sunday morning, when the women arrived at Jesus’ tomb and found it empty, two angels (Luke 24:4) announced to them that Jesus was risen from the dead, “as He said” that He would (Matt. 28:6). “And they remembered His words,” for Jesus had taught His disciples, “The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again” (Luke 24:7-8).

On Sunday morning, when we arrive at the first-day-of-the-week worship assembly, we also need to remember His words. We need to remember that we are gathering on the first day of the week to celebrate that it is “the third day” on which He would “rise again.” We need to remember that He was “delivered into the hands of sinful men,” in order to shed His blood to forgive us of our sins (Matt. 26:28).

Seeing the empty tomb must have changed their lives forever. His words must have resonated in their hearts for the rest of their lives. Does it have that same impact on us? Jesus said, “Do this in remembrance!” – DS

New Sunday Bible Classes

(JUNE 9-AUGUST 4)

Auditorium (Richard Watson):

Spiritual Maturity and Stewardship

Our level of spiritual maturity can be measured in various ways, but one sure measurement of our maturity as Christians is in the area of stewardship, which has many different facets to it. This class will study the stewardship of God's grace, that we may create an awareness of opportunities, privileges and responsibilities in worship to God and service to man.

Adult 1-2 (Kirk Crews, Jeff Goodale, Willie Smith, David Sproule, Ivan Villard, plus others):

Hall of Faith (Hebrews 11)

Hebrews 11 is often called the "Hall of Fame of Faith." Sometimes, the Hebrews writer describes the individual's faith, while other times only their name is referenced. These individuals were not perfect, but God wanted them listed. Why? Each Sunday, we will study an individual from the Hall of Faith, so we can better serve God faithfully in our lives.

Conference Room (Dan Fuller):

Fundamentals of the Faith (Part 2)

It is essential that all Christians be rooted, built up and established in the faith (Col. 2:7). New Testament Christianity, with all of its doctrines and practices, finds its roots in "the faith" (i.e., the one gospel system) revealed in the New Testament. This class is especially for new converts and Christians who need to be firmly grounded in the fundamentals of the faith of Christ.
